

CONJUNCTIONS

■ Use and for additional information:

The food is delicious, and it's not expensive.

■ Use but, though, and however for contrasting information:

The food is delicious, but it's very expensive.

The food is delicious. It's expensive, though/however.

Choose the correct word.

1. Spring in my city is pretty nice, and / but it gets extremely hot in summer.
2. My favorite TV Show is on, I am too tired to watch it but / though!
3. There are some great museums. They're always crowded, and / however.
4. We were going to the park, it started to rain and / however.
5. She wanted to buy a newspaper and/but she didn't have enough money.
6. There are a lot of interesting stores, and / but many of them aren't expensive.
7. He likes to put cheese and/however ham in his sandwich.
8. My mom prepared the sandwich for the picnic, she forgot the soda though/but.
9. New York is a very beautiful place, Its too dangerous but/however.
10. My city is a great place to visit. Don't come in summer, but / though!

11.I hate sushi but/and I love pizza.

12.Daniela visited her grandma yesterday, he forgot to talk to his mom but/though.

13.Carlos is a very good friend and/but he is always too busy.

14.Jessica went to Hawaii last year and/but she saw many good places.

15.Santo Domingo is an amazing city; I don't like it however/and.