

adjective + infinitive

noun + infinitive.

A. Rewrite the sentences. Add NOT if necessary.

With a flu, it's important
NOT to exercise.

Example: For a bad headache, you should take aspirin and a nap.

(a good idea)

It's a good idea to take aspirin and a nap for a bad headache.

1. You should put some lotion on a sunburn. (sometimes helpful)

2. For a backache, you should take some pain killer. (important)

3. For a cold, you should drink hot tea with honey. (sometimes helpful)

4. When you feel stressed out, you should get a massage. (a good idea)

5. For a cough, you shouldn't drink cold beverages. (important)

6. For a sore throat, you should take lemon with honey. (sometimes helpful)