

MAKING OFFERS AND SUGGESTIONS

We use SHALL to make an offer or to make a suggestion, for e.g.

a girl: I'm very hungry.

mum: Shall I make a sandwich for you?

a woman: It is very cold in here.

a man: Shall I turn on the heating?

a student: I don't understand this task.

a friend: Shall I help you?

Mark: I'm bored.

Peter: Shall we go to the cinema?

Make offers, use SHALL, use these expressions:

...open the window?

...switch the light on?

...turn it up?

...do the shopping for you?

...tidy it up?

...change the channel?

...carry it for you?

...go for a walk?

1. This bag is so heavy.

2. It's such a nice day.

3. I don't feel well and the room is a mess.

4. It is hot in the room.

5. I'm waiting for a phone call and I need to go shopping.

6. It's getting dark.

7. This programme is so boring.

8. I can't hear the music well.