

Idioms are groups of words that mean something different than what the words say.

Example: It is raining cats and dogs.
'raining cats and dogs' is an idiom. It means raining heavily.

Click and read an electronic storybook. ➡ to learn more idioms. Then, match the idioms with the meanings.

a piece of cake	all ears	on cloud nine	feeling blue
broken hearted	give her a hand	turns a deaf ear	armed to the teeth

Listen carefully = _____	Help = _____	Feeling sad = _____	refuse to listen = _____

Formidably armed = _____	Very easy = _____	overwhelmed by grief or disappointment = _____	Feeling very happy = _____

Complete the sentences below

1. May was feeling blue because _____
2. My sister was on cloud nine because _____
3. Please give me a hand, I _____
4. I am all ears when _____