

LISTEN TO PAULA TALK TO HER MOTHER ABOUT FRIENDSHIP AND COMPLETE THE MISSING WORDS:

Paula: I'm meeting a lot of new
1) _____ here, but I don't want to forget my best friends from my old school.

Mom: Well, I have a 2) _____ who lives in another country - we still email each other every month.

Paula: Oh! How did you meet her?

Mom: Kari was a new 3) _____ at our school. She looked
4) _____ so I decided to 5) _____ friends with her. I sat next to her and we started to talk. We immediately 6) _____ along well, and we became really good friends after that. Of course, we sometimes didn't get along - usually about silly things - but we were never 7) _____ for long. One of us always said, "Sorry!" But one time, we didn't speak to each other for about two weeks!

Paula: Why did you have a falling out?

Mom: I told her a 8) _____. I said, "Kari, promise me you won't say anybody else. I got a zero on my English written test." Kari said, "Don't worry, I promise I won't tell anyone." But the next day, she told her brother when he did badly on an English test...

Paula: That's not good. A good friend never 9) _____ a promise.

Mom: That's true. But remember, good friends also 10) _____ each other.
