

ANIMALS CLASSIFICATION REVIEW.

1. MATCH the Word with the correct definition.

Vertebrates

Animals with no backbone.
These animals don't have internal skeleton.

Invertebrates

Animals with backbone and
internal skeleton.

2. CHOOSE the correct option.

3.DRAG the invertebrate.

Now let's read about oviparous and viviparous.

Animals that are born from the mother's womb are called viviparous.

Animals like chickens and snakes hatch from eggs are called oviparous.

4. ANSWER true or false with the information above.

- a. Chickens hatch from eggs.
- b. Snakes are oviparous.
- c. Viviparous are born from the mother's womb.
- d. Chickens are viviparous.

5. MATCH the animals with the correct group.

Ducks – frogs – snakes
crocodiles - birds

Dogs- cats- rabbits
Sheep - horse

VIVIPAROUS

OVIPAROUS

6. Let's talk about the characteristics of the following animals. Use the key words vocabulary. Look at the example.

That is a frog.

It is a vertebrate animal.

It is an oviparous animal.

It jumps.

