Dear Joaquim,

Hope you're well. I wanted to tell you some information before you buy your ticket to London. You (1) don't have to / mustn't forget to get a visa before you come to visit, and of course you know you (2) have to / should have a valid passport. You know about the British weather, so you (3) mustn't / should bring clothes for every season. You (4) don't have to / mustn't bring an umbrella because I've got one you can borrow, but you (5) don't have to / should bring a raincoat. And remember - you (6) shouldn't / should worry about anything – I'll look after you while you are here.

See you next week!

Selina

ON THEIR WAY TO SCHOOL

The children (0) of Gulu, which is a small village in China, used to have (1) unusual journey to school. Their village (2) located in a deep valley surrounded by mountains and it took them five hours to get to their school. The pupils had to climb up a mountain along a path that was (3) narrow in places that they were in danger of falling into the valley below.

Their teacher, Shen Qijun, ran this school (4) over 26 years. Although his students enjoyed school, only two of (5) went to university. Everything changed when a newspaper wrote a report and this journey to school became famous. The local government decided (6) close the school because the journey was too dangerous. People sent money and the families could afford to send their children to the town below the mountain to attend school there.
