

Read this paragraph about New York and then mark True or False.

New York and London are two big cities. They are interesting and they attract thousands of tourists every year. Read about them and find out: which city do you like it?

New York is on the east coast of the USA. It is a big modern and cosmopolitan city. There aren't any old castles or palaces in New York. There are lot of tall modern buildings and skyscrapers. In the streets there is a lot of traffic. There are many cars and taxis. The cars are big and comfortable and the taxis are yellow. In the middle of the city center there is a big park. It is name is Central Park. In the park, there is a museum of art, there is a lake and there are many trees.

Manhattan is the capital of New York. There are many activities to do there. There are all kind of restaurants, museums and art of galleries. There are night clubs and pubs to have fun! There is a subway, a train station and a bus station. There are three airports. And there is a ferry station, too. There are many tourist attractions, also.

London

London is the capital of England. It's in the south of England on the River Thames. There aren't a lot of tall modern buildings in London. There are big modern offices in the old buildings and there are a lot of historical buildings: palaces, churches and museums. The tower of London, for example, is a very old castle. It is 900 years old! In the busy streets of London there are old red buses, old black taxis and small modern cars. There isn't one big park in the middle of the city. There are five parks in different parts of the city. London is a green city.

Mark the sentences True or False.

1. New York is in the west coast of the USA.
2. It is a big modern and cosmopolitan city.
3. There are old castles and palaces in New York.
4. There isn't a lot of traffic.
5. The cars are small.
6. The taxis are pink.

7. In the middle of the city there is a big park.
8. London is in the south of England.
9. There are lot of tall modern buildings.
10. There are old red buses.
11. The taxis are black.
12. There is one park.