

Grammar: Their, Your, Our

A.

- Watch the video.
- Click on the words you hear

PANDAS	CROCODILES	SEAL
CHEETAHS	TIGERS	HIPPOS
ELEPHANTS	KANGAROOS	WHALES

B Read the Grammar box. Write the words in the blanks.

It is a dog. This is its bone.

They are monkeys. These are their tails.

You are kids. These are your games.

We are tigers. These are our teeth.

its their your our

1. The crocodile has big teeth. _____ teeth are big.

2. The camels have long legs. _____ legs are long.

3. Max and Mandy. Is this _____ camera?

4. Yes! This is _____ camera!

C. Look at the picture. Read. Write the correct animal names in the spaces.

ELEPHANTS HIPPOS KANGAROOS SEAL SNAKE

1. They have babies in their pouches. _____

2. Ther ears are big and they are gray. _____

3. We are brothers. Our mouths are big. _____

4. Its body is long and it is on a tree. _____

5. You are sitting on your rock. _____

D. Read and write Its, their, your, or our.

1. Look at the elephants. _____ noses are called trunks.

2. Look at the kangaroos. _____ tails are very long.

3. We are the hippos. _____ ears are small.

4. Hi, you beautiful seal! _____ feet are called flippers

5. Look at the snake. _____ eyes are yellow.

