My First Surf Lesson

Brian
There's a beach near where I live and I have always wanted to try surfing. I finally signed up for my first class last weekend. I was so excited that I could hardly sleep the night before. But then my experience was just awful. The waves weren't big, but when I got in the water, they seemed huge. I felt terrified and got out of the water before class was over.

Kayla
I went on holiday at the beach last summer and our hotel offered surf lessons. I wasn't sure at first, but my dad said I should sign up, so I did. The teacher was very patient. I fell a lot, but at the end of class, I was able to stand up! It was an amazing feeling. The night after my class, I was so tired that I slept until 10am the next day! I'll definitely be surfing the next time we're near the sea.

Sam
I saw an advertisement in the newspaper for surf lessons, so I told a few friends about it and we all decided to sign up together. When the day came, I felt scared and didn't want to go, but I'm so glad I went anyway. The teacher was great and my friends and I really enjoyed ourselves. Luckily, the waves weren't very big and I found surfing quite easy. I hardly fell at all.

Questions 14 - 18

For each question, choose the correct answer.

Shopping with friends
by Daniel McKay, age 13

Yesterday I went shopping with two of my friends without our parents for the first time. We wanted to go to some shops that we like in the city centre, which is a bit far from our neighbourhood. My parents offered to drive us and there's a bus that goes there, but we decided to walk.

We started at the skate shop as I was looking for a new skateboard. I was nervous about choosing one by myself, but the salesperson gave me loads of advice. He said I could take as long as I needed to decide. I tried five or six different skateboards before deciding which one I wanted.

Next we went to a department store to look for a jacket for my friend James. He almost never goes shopping for clothes because he has lots of cousins who give him their old clothes. But his mum said this time he could get something new for himself. He wanted a green jacket, but there weren't any, so he got a red one instead.

We went to a clothing shop next because my other friend, Nick, wanted a new sweatshirt. It was a really cool shop with all the latest fashion. The shop assistants showed us lots of different clothes, but everything was really expensive. None of us bought anything there in the end.

I have to say that at the beginning of the afternoon, I was worried about getting lost or having a bad experience without my parents. But now I feel confident going around the city by myself and I can't wait to do it again.

14 How did the friends go to the city centre?

A On foot.

B By car.

C By bus.

15 What does Daniel say about the salesperson at the skate shop?

A He wanted him to choose a skateboard quickly.

B He was very helpful.

C He made him feel nervous by talking too much.

16 What does Daniel say about James' clothes?

A He gets a new jacket every year.

B His mum never lets him get new clothes.

C He often gets clothes from family members.

17 Why didn't the friends buy anything at the second clothing shop?

A They didn't like the style.

B The shop assistants weren't friendly.

C The clothes cost too much.

18 How did Daniel feel at the end of the day?

A Excited to go around the city by himself in the future.

B Unhappy that they got lost several times.

C Ready to go home and see his parents.
