Unit 6. History

Julius Caesar

SOCIAL SCIENCE

1. Read and choose.

Julius Caesar

Julius Caesar is one of the most famous people in history. He was born in Rome in 100 B.C. He was a brave military commander and his achievements made him a hero in Rome.

He was the governor of Hispania for 9 years. He was elected as a consul, the highest political office in the Roman Republic. The next year, Caesar was made governor because he stabilised the raglan for the Romans. Caesar then went back to Rome with his army, defeated the army of the Roman Republic and proclaimed himself dictator of Rome.

He made many positive changes to Roman life, but he also made many enemies. He was assassinated by a group of Roman senators in 44 BC on the steps of the Roman Senate.

a) Caesar is one of the _____ in history.

b) Caesar became a hero in Rome because of his _____

c) Caesar was a successful governor because he _____

d) He had many _____

e) In 44BC Caesar was _____

Teacher Alex