

Present Continuous

1. Match the sentences with the pictures.

- | | |
|-------------------------------|----------------------------------|
| 1. She is singing. ____ | 2. She is reading a book. ____ |
| 3. She is sleeping. ____ | 4. She is eating pizza. ____ |
| 5. She is driving a car. ____ | 6. She is writing a letter. ____ |

2. Complete the sentences with the present continuous. Don't Forget the auxiliar verb (am, is, are).

- Paul _____ (read) a book about animals.
- Mary and Tom _____ (sleep) in a comfortable bed.
- I _____ (watch) TV with my mum.
- Grace _____ (drive) her new car.
- Bill _____ (dance) very well.
- We _____ (eat) an apple pie.

3. Write negative and interrogative sentences, as in the example.

Affirmative: She is walking in the garden.

Negative: She isn't walking in the garden.

Interrogative: Is she walking in the garden?

a.

Affirmative: We are listening to the radio.

Negative: _____

Interrogative: _____ ?

b.

Affirmative: The baby is drinking milk.

Negative: _____

Interrogative: _____ ?

c.

Affirmative: My parents are dancing.

Negative: _____

Interrogative: _____ ?

d.

Affirmative: You are playing the piano.

Negative: _____

Interrogative: _____ ?

4. Match the questions with the answers.

a. Are you writing?

1. No, he isn't.

b. Is she crying?

2. Yes, I am.

c. Are they cooking?

3. No, she isn't.

d. Is he playing football?

4. Yes, they are.

5. Answer the questions by using short answers.

a. Are you writing an essay?

Yes, _____

b. Is she brushing her teeth?

No, _____

c. Is he eating lunch?

Yes. _____

d. Are they doing their homework?

No, _____