

ACTIVITY

- A. Use a dictionary to find the meaning of the phrasal verbs.
- B. Find examples of transitive and intransitive phrasal verbs in the following activity.

FOOD AND DRINK

These phrasal verbs are all about food and drink. Complete the sentences below using the correct form of a phrasal verb.

whip up - cut back - bolt down - cut out - pick up - drink up - pig out - warm up - knock back

- a. Susan only has 15 minutes to eat lunch so she _____ it _____ really fast.
- b. Toni loves cooking so every day he _____ a delicious supper for his wife and kids.
- c. Jamie had been on a diet all week, so during the weekend he _____ on fast food.
- d. There's nothing in the fridge so I will _____ some sandwiches _____ from the shop.
- e. If you're hungry, _____ the leftovers in the microwave.
- f. My Dad has very high cholesterol, so he has _____ eggs and dairy from his diet.
- g. You drink too much alcohol, you should _____ on alcoholic drinks.
- h. When John got to the bar he immediately asked for a big whiskey and _____ it _____.
- i. All right. Our beers are here, let's _____.

go off - hand round - put off - pour out - pick at - top up - go with - run out - finish off

- a. We may as well _____ this wine - there's only a little bit left.
- b. We opened that bottle a year ago. The wine must _____.
- c. Would you like me to _____ your drink?
- d. Adam, could you _____ the cheese?
- e. Would you _____ some malbec _____ for me, please?
- f. This wine _____ particularly well _____ seafood
- g. This afternoon Andy picked at his food, because he was feeling sick and could hardly keep anything down.
- h. We have _____ of cheese so I am going to the store.
- i. I think it has _____ me _____ beer for life after getting drunk last week.