

2 1.20 Listen to three teenagers talking about lies. Match statements 1–6 to Charlie (C), Sean (S) and Elly (E).

- 1 If my best friend asks me if I like her new haircut tomorrow, I'll say yes.
- 2 If they didn't ask so many questions, I wouldn't tell so many lies.
- 3 If he ever found out, he'd be really furious.
- 4 If I said what I really thought, they might get upset.
- 5 If you tell the truth all the time, you'll offend people.
- 6 Unless she learns that lying is wrong, she might become a compulsive liar.
