
Present Continuous

GRAMMAR IN FOCUS VIDEO 3.2 Watch the Grammar in Focus video and revise the grammar rules.

1 Choose the correct options, A or B.

1 You use the Present Continuous to talk about

- A an action in progress at the moment.
- B a regular activity.

2 Which is the Present Continuous form?

- A am/are/is + -ed verb form
- B am/are/is + -ing verb form

3 When the verb ends in -e,

- A just add -ing.
- B drop the e and add -ing.

4 When one-syllable verbs end with a vowel + a consonant,

- A double the last consonant and then add -ing.
- B no changes are made.

5 Which group of words is spelled correctly?

- A opening, having, puting
- B going, leaving, getting

6 How would you answer the question: Is he leaving the house?

- A No, he not.
- B No, he isn't.

7 How would you answer the question: Are they talking?

- A Yes, they are.
- B Yes, they're.

Present Simple and Present Continuous

GRAMMAR IN FOCUS VIDEO 3.5 Watch the Grammar in Focus video and revise the grammar rules.

2 Choose the correct options, A or B.

1 You use the Present Simple for

- A regular activities.
- B activities happening at the moment of speaking.

2 To talk about a temporary situation we use

- A the Present Simple.
- B the Present Continuous.

3 Which is correct?

- A Joe lives in York. He's got a house there.
- B Joe is living in York. He's got a house there.

4 Which is correct?

- A Mike lives in York this summer. He's got a summer job there.
- B Mike is living in York this summer. He's got a summer job there.

5 The Present Continuous is NOT used for

- A things happening now.
- B permanent situations.

6 The Present Simple is used for

- A temporary situations.
- B permanent situation.