

1 Translate the sentences.

1 I'm a mechanic and I work from Monday to Friday. But this week I'm not working. I'm at home on holiday.

2 'What are those boys doing on the roof?' 'I think they are looking for their ball.'

2 Complete the sentences with the words and phrases in the box.

aren't how many lot is doesn't an many are a how much

- 1 She _____ know what to say.
- 2 When _____ you leaving for New York?
- 3 There _____ any spoons on the table.
- 4 She needs _____ holiday.
- 5 _____ vinegar do you usually put in the salad?
- 6 There are a _____ of policemen in front of the station.
- 7 _____ people are coming to the party?
- 8 What _____ happening?
- 9 Do you have _____ umbrella with you?
- 10 There aren't _____ dishes left to clean.

3 Read the answers and complete the questions.

- 1 When _____?
I usually do my homework before dinner.
- 2 Where _____?
She's taking the dog to a vet.
- 3 How often _____?
They have dinner out once or twice a week.
- 4 Where _____?
I'm studying in the UK this year.

5 How much _____ drink?
Not much. I don't like coffee.

6 How many _____?
I usually drink two cups of tea a day.

7 Who _____?
Jeff and Sam are meeting their friends in the afternoon.

4 Choose the correct options.

The pressure of exams means not 1 many / much / some young people 2 now take / aren't taking / are now taking on Saturday jobs. Among 16 and 17-year-olds only one in five has 3 the / a / some part-time job while studying.

It seems that 4 the / a / – young people don't like the idea of working while studying. But this is wrong. Millions of young people don't have the experience of the world of work that can help them find 5 a work / the jobs / jobs in the future. Annabel, 17, 6 is now studying / now studying / now studies to be a secretary and also has a part-time job in a bar. 'It's hard to find jobs at the moment,' she says. But she thinks it's important for people of her age to try to find 7 much / many / some employment while they're studying.

Tyler, 16, says 'I'm too lazy to study and work at the same time'. He explains he 8 spends / is spending / spend most of his spare time doing sport.