

2. Class 2 june 2020

GRAMMAR: if/unless sentences

In Part 1, you often see sentences with if or unless giving information, advice or instructions.

1) Match the sentence halves.

- | | |
|--|--------------------------------------|
| 1. If you miss your appointment, | a) if you come back later. |
| 2. We'll be home by lunchtime | b) you'll have to pay £10. |
| 3. If they invite us to stay with them, | c) I'll go inside. |
| 4. I'll have time to talk to you | d) if they need a lift. |
| 5. If you aren't outside the restaurant, | e) unless the traffic is very heavy. |
| 6. I'll collect them from the station | f) we'll accept. |

GRAMMAR: time words and phrases

In Part 1, time words and phrases, for example after that, at present, later and until can be very important when you are choosing your answer.

2) Find and underline examples of time expressions in the following Exam Tasks.

John

Can you call the cinema from home and check film time before leaving? Let me know what time we should get there.

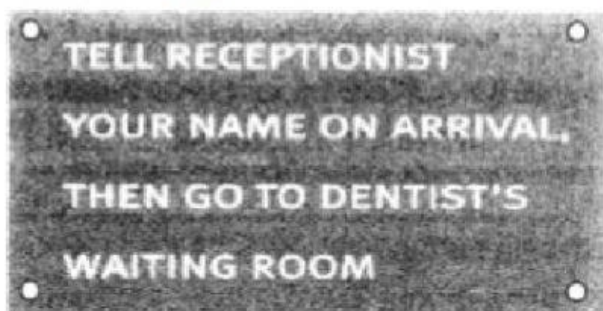

Nell

John should

- A contact Nell after phoning the cinema.
- B ring Nell after arriving at the cinema.
- C go to the cinema to check when the film starts.

SAVER TICKETS CAN BE USED ON THE 10.15 TRAIN AND
ANY TRAIN AFTER THAT

- A The first train you can travel on with a 'saver' ticket is the 10.15.
- B 'Saver' tickets cost extra if you travel after 10.15.
- C The 10.15 is the only train you can travel on with a 'saver' ticket.

- A Do not leave the waiting room until the receptionist calls your name.
- B Do not go to the waiting room before telling the receptionist you are here.
- C The receptionist will tell the dentist that you have arrived.

Dear all We're staying by the sea for a few days at present instead of going straight to the mountains. It's very relaxing after driving for two days to get here. Michael
--	--

- A Michael has spent two days driving to the mountains.
- B Michael visited the mountains before going to the coast.
- C Michael is having a break from travelling at the moment.

THIS OFFICE CAN ONLY TAKE BOOKINGS AT LEAST
TWENTY-FOUR HOURS
IN ADVANCE OF DEPARTURE

- A This office doesn't take bookings for the same day as you travel.
- B If you book tickets here, you'll receive them a day later.
- C You can book tickets at this office twenty-four hours a day.

Students wanting to go on the trip should go to the office within the next two days with the correct money. We no longer accept credit cards or give change.

Students should

- A pay the exact amount for the trip in cash.
- B make sure they have a credit card for the trip.
- C take enough change with them on the trip.

3) Rewrite the sentences below using the expressions from the box instead of the words underlined.

later	at present	every fifteen minutes
in advance	within a fortnight	no longer
until	in time	at the moment

1. The restaurant is not open now.
2. I'm on holiday from now to Tuesday.
3. That film is not showing any more.
4. The museum is closed for lunch, but it will be open afterwards.
5. There's a tram from here to the city centre four times an hour.
6. I promise I'll reply to your request in less than two weeks.
7. Harry's not here now, can I take a message?
8. We need to know how many people are coming to the performance before it starts.
9. You must be here early enough to catch the ferry.