

Complete the rewritten sentences with the correct subject and object pronouns.
The first item is already completed as an example.

1. David (subject) kisses his mother (object) every day.

He kisses her every day.

2. Mrs. Wang is shouting at Carlos.

_____ is shouting at _____.

3. The dog is barking at Simone and me.

_____ is barking at _____.

4. Simone and I are nervous about the test.

_____ are nervous about _____.

5. In Japan, people give business cards with two hands.

In Japan, _____ give _____ with two hands.

6. I am waving to you and Leo.

I am waving to  . Can you see  ?

Subject Pronouns	Object Pronouns
I love my parents.	My parents love me .
You need help.	I can help you .*
He / She knows Jon.	Jon knows him / her .
It is expensive.	I can't buy it .
We are having a party.	Please join us .
They are popular.	Everyone likes them .

*For both singular and plural you

 Object pronouns come after...
a verb: My parents love me.
a preposition: Jon is angry at her.