

The Japanese have been known as great fish-lovers. However, the sea waters close to the Japanese islands were not so rich in fish as the waters lying far out in the sea. Thus, in order to feed the Japanese (39)_____, fishing boats became bigger and went further than ever. The (40)_____, the fishermen went, the more time it took to bring the fish. If the (41)_____, trip took longer, the fish were not fresh. To work out this problem, fish companies (42)_____, freezers on their boats. They caught the fish and stored them frozen just on boats. Freezers allowed the boats to go further for longer journeys.

(43)_____, the Japanese could taste the difference between fresh and frozen fish. And they did not enjoy the frozen fish much. The frozen fish had a lower (44)_____. So the fishing industry (45)_____, a forthcoming crisis! But today, they manage to get fresh-tasting fish to Japan.

How did they manage to do that? To keep the fish fresh, the Japanese fishing companies still put the fish in tanks but with a small shark. The fish are challenged and hence are constantly on the (46)_____. The challenge they face keeps them (47)_____, and fresh! Have you realized that some of us are also living in a pond but most of the time exhausted and bored? Basically in our lives, sharks are new challenges to keep us active. If you are constantly (48)_____, challenges, you are happy. Your challenges keep you active. Put a shark in your tank and see how far you can really go!

	A	B	C	D
39	residence	population	audience	citizenship
40	quicker	further	furrer	furthest
41	back	round	return	cheap
42	invested	resolved	installed	found
43	However	In order to	Provided that	Fortunately
44	pay	price	earn	bill
45	eyed	mouthed	nosed	faced
46	walk	step	jump	move
47	alive	life	live	lively
48	conquer	conquering	conqueror	conquered

Many people like going to amusement parks. Barry also (49)_____ until that unlucky visit.

It was Sunday, and Barry and his friends decided to go to Adventureland, an amusement park in their town. Barry expected to have a very good time there, but he had (50)_____ time ever.

To begin with, it was Sunday, and there were crowds of people and queues everywhere. (51)_____, Barry and his friends had too many roller coaster rides. At first, they were all very (52)_____, and Barry screamed until his lungs hurt. Barry's friends wanted to ride more of the coasters, and so for three hours they didn't stop to rest. They went on the Mega Roller Coaster, the Racer, and the Flying Roller Coaster (53)_____. Barry started feeling really dizzy.

That was when Barry's friends decided that it was time for lunch. Barry was still feeling awful, but he wanted to (54)_____, his friends a company. When he went to one of the food stands, however, he saw that the prices were rather (55)_____. He spent seven pounds on an order of a hamburger and Cola. As soon as Barry took his order and (56)_____, to his table, the boy running by pushed him accidentally, and Barry's Cola spilled on the hamburger. Barry's food was spoilt!

By that moment Barry was really upset and hungry, and his face was red, so his friends (57)_____, going on a water ride so that Barry could cool down. First, Barry thought it was a good idea, but when they rode it, he forgot to take his glasses off. At one point, they fell off into the water. Barry watched helplessly as they sank to the bottom while he kept (58)_____, forward in his raft. He had to go through the rest of the day practically blind.

That's why Barry decided that he would never go to Adventureland or any other amusement park again.

	A	B	C	D
49	do	did	does	done
50	bad	badly	worse	the worst
51	Despite	Although	Besides	While
52	excite	exciting	excitedly	excitingly
53	in front	behind	after	until
54	stay	keep	take	be
55	high	tall	top	rise
56	going	was going	gone	went
57	suggested	asked	offered	said
58	rushed	to rush	rush	rushing