

ASKING FOR AGREEMENT

QUESTION TAGS WITH THE VERB TO BE

Remember, we use question tags to ask for confirmation when we know something is true.

Affirmative sentence You are American,	Negative question tag Aren't you?
Negative sentence You aren't American,	Positive question tag Are you?
Watch out! I'm American,	Aren't I?

Read the sentences. Complete with the correct question tag.

Example:

Lisa is a student, is she?

1. James is playing soccer in the park, _____?

2. You are going to get up early tomorrow, _____?

3. Ana's house isn't small _____?

4. Mike and his friends aren't at the movies _____?

5. Cereal is her favorite food, _____?

6. I am a good chef, _____?

7. They are speaking English now, _____?

8. Katya isn't doing aerobics, _____?

9. We are good friends, _____?

10. James isn't a good singer, _____?

