You may not	(1. acquaint) the Nebuta Festival. It
(2. organized) the city	of Aomori, in northern Japan. The main pa	rt of the festival is a nighttime parade. Special colorful loats	(3. prepare) people in the community. The frames of these floats (4. make) wood and	(5. cover) beautiful paper. The inside of each float		hts that make them glow. Then the brightly lit floats
	(7. carry) city residents through the	e streets. The streets
(8. crowd) spectators as well as festival dancers, who		(9. dress) special costumes. The dancers	(10. accompany) loud drumming music, and the dancers chant noisily as they move through the streets. If you want to		(11. involve) the festival, even as a tourist, you can! You just have to rent a costume to dance! The festival		(12. associate) an old legend. It is said that many centuries ago, the colorful floats		(13. use) soldiers in battle. The soldiers nid inside them in ord	der to trick their enemies.	