Hi everyone! My name is Pablo. Today, I had an interesting day. First, I woke up late to go to school! I was incredibly nervous. Fortunately, when I left my house, a ▮▮▮▮▮▮ saw me in a hurry and offered to give me a ride. When I arrive school my ▮▮▮▮▮▮ asked me If I could help him with his homework, so I did it. After school, I was walking in the park on the way home and I found a homeless and starving puppy. I decided to help the dog, so I took it to an ▮▮▮▮▮ ▮▮▮▮▮.

When we arrived there, the owners of the refugee were so grateful that they offered me to help in an ▮▮▮▮▮ ▮▮▮▮▮ to promote environmental care. Of course, I said yes! Finally, when I arrived home, I met a ▮▮▮▮▮ sitting in the sidewalk and asking for food or money. The poor man was starving. I gave him some food, clothes and also, I gave him a brochure about a ▮▮▮▮▮ ▮▮▮▮▮ which was only ten blocks away. As you can see, I had a great day because helping people made me feel a good citizen. Can you think what other thinks can we do to help people?
