

Look at the map and choose the right option.

- | | | |
|---|---------------------------------|---------------------------|
| 1 Appenines / Pennines | 3 Alps / Scandinavian Mountains | 5 Dnieper / Elbe |
| 2 Strait of Gibraltar / Strait of Marmara | 4 Danube / Thames | 6 Caspian Sea / Black Sea |
- a The (1) _____ are in the United Kingdom.
 - b The (2) _____ connects the Atlantic Ocean to the Mediterranean Sea.
 - c The (3) _____ is the most extensive mountain system in Central Europe.
 - d Europe's second longest river is the (4) _____.
 - e The (5) _____ river flows into the Black Sea watersheds.
 - f The (6) _____ is located between south-eastern Europe and Asia.

Read the sentences about rivers and seas in Europe.
Are the sentences true (T) or false (F)?

- a The Danube starts in Germany and flows across Central Europe. ☐
- b The Volga is the longest river in Europe. ☐
- c The Thames flows into the Black Sea. ☐
- d Sweden and Poland both have the Baltic Sea as their coastal waters. ☐

Complete the sentences with the correct name.

Great European Plain Alps Scandinavian Mountains

- a The _____ stretches across central and eastern Europe.
- b The _____ are in the north of Europe.
- c The _____ are in the south of Europe.

Answer the questions.

- a Which is the tallest mountain in Europe?

- b What is a transcontinental country?

- c How many countries are there in Europe?

- d Which climates can be found in Europe?
