

Week 4
English Mastery
Primary

The Write Tribe

UNIT 3
SPORTS

VOCABULARY MCQ

1. The rain was so heavy, it was raining _____.

- a. cats and dogs
- b. mice and rats
- c. cats and rats
- d. rainbows

2. I took my clothes from the _____.

- a. cabinet
- b. trash bin
- c. wardrobe
- d. oven

3. She let out a high - pitched _____ when she saw the flying cockroach.

- a. screech
- b. laugh
- c. voice
- d. chuckle

4. John was so silent, he was _____.

- a. quiet as a rat
- b. quiet as a church mouse
- c. loud as a lion
- d. fast as a cheetah

5. I _____ as fast as I can in the race.

- a. walked
- b. jogged
- c. waltzed
- d. sprinted

6. I _____ my ears to listen to what she was saying.

- a. sprained
- b. strained
- c. drained

7. I _____ at the top of my lungs when I broke my arm.

- a. sang
- b. chuckled
- c. yelled

8. Cecilia and I played a game of hide and seek. I hid. She was the _____.

- a. speaker
- b. seeker
- c. finder

9. To my _____, I couldn't find my missing toy.

- a. astonishment
- b. accomplishment
- c. joy

10. Xu Hao _____ his arms wildly to call for help.

- a. flailed
- b. failed
- c. swung

DRAG AND DROP

PHRASES	MEANING
Humongous
engrossed
beads of perspiration
quenched their thirst
exhilaration
Feeling parched
Gulp

very large	satisfying the need for water
excitement	dry throat
gave full attention	forehead wet with sweat
swallow large mouthfuls of food or water

humongous	beads of perspiration
exhilaration	quenched my thirst
engrossed	parched
gulps

It was a balmy afternoon. My sister Jane and I decided to go to our neighbourhood stadium to play badminton. The stadium was 1. _____ . It has ten badminton courts! Soon, Jane and I started playing. We were so 2. _____ in our game that we did not notice time flying. I wiped the 3. _____ from my forehead as I smacked the shuttlecocks to and fro. Suddenly, I felt uneasy and fell down. “Sally, did you drink enough water?” Jane asked. “No,” I muttered. “No wonder!” Jane proceeded to grab an icy cold bottle of water. I licked my dry lips. In my 4. _____ to win the game, I completely forgot to drink water! My throat was so 5. _____, it felt like paper! I 6. _____ with a large 7. _____ of water. It felt so refreshing. I learnt my lesson to always hydrate myself with water. We must keep our body healthy. After all, health is wealth!

Comprehension

1. Which word in the passage tells us that the stadium was very large?

The word is, “

2. Why did the author fall?

The author fell because she

3. What did the author do to feel better?

4. Which phrase tells us the author was sweating a lot?

The phrase is, “

5. What lesson did the author learn?

Rewrite each sentence in the correct order.

1. from my forehead      the      beads of perspiration      I wiped

---

---

---

---

2. humongous      was      The stadium

---

---

---

---

3. was so parched      My throat      that it felt like sandpaper

---

---

---

---

4. my thirst with      I quenched      gulps of icy cold water

---

---

---

---

SPELLING:

SPELLING: Only learn the bolded phrases. 1 buck

1. John was so silent, he was

2. It was

3. I

to hear what she was saying.

