Making comparisons

1. Match the words with the pictures. → Uni las palabras con las imágenes.

Big Small Old Young

2. Listen and repeat the words to complete. → Escucha y repeti las palabras para completar.

Big: _____ Old: _____

Small: _____ Young: _____

3. Watch the following video and complete the rules. → Mira el siguiente video y completa las reglas.

a) Los adjetivos comparativos utilizamos para comparar: _____
b) Los adjetivos superlativos utilizamos para comparar: _____
c) La mayoría de los adjetivos comparativos terminan en: _____
d) La mayoría de los adjetivos superlativos terminan en: _____

Comparing prokaryotic and eukaryotic cells

4. Click in the correct option. → Hacer un clic a la opción correcta.

a) The prokaryote cells are a little bit younger / older than the eukaryotic cells.
b) The prokaryotic cells have a few / a lot of organelles and are more complex / simpler.
c) The prokaryotic cells don't have any / some nuclear membrane with a nucleus inside.
d) The eukaryotic cells have a little / a lot of organelles.
e) Among the eukaryotic cells we find cells of different sizes. An ovule is much bigger / smaller than a spermatozoon.
f) The eggs are the smallest / biggest cells that a living organism produces.
g) Bacteria are usually smaller / bigger than sperms.