

NAME:

Tuesday 16th June

SETTING

The setting is where the story takes place. You need to write the setting of the story very carefully so the reader can imagine where the events are happening.

1. Describe the room where you sleep, follow these steps:

- a) Make a list of things in your room.

- 1) _____
 - 2) _____
 - 3) _____
 - 4) _____
 - 5) _____
 - 6) _____
 - 7) _____
 - 8) _____
 - 9) _____
 - 10) _____
 - 11) _____

- b) List the colours in your room.

- 1) _____
 - 2) _____
 - 3) _____
 - 4) _____
 - 5) _____
 - 6) _____

- c) Write a few sentences about your room.

- 1) _____
 - 2) _____
 - 3) _____
 - 4) _____

- d) Begin your sentences like this:

- 1) In my room I have _____
- 2) _____
- 3) _____
- 4) _____
- 5) _____
- 6) _____
- 7) _____
- 8) _____

2. Some children like to build dens to play in. imagine you are going to write a story that takes place in a den you have made. The den can be indoors or outside. Describe your den.

- a) What did you use for the walls?

- b) What did you use for the roof?

- c) What did you use for the door?

- d) What does it feel like in your den?

- e) What is inside your den?
