

Grammar 1

Present Perfect

We use Present Perfect + ever/never to talk about experiences up to now.

Have you ever been mountain biking?

No, I've never been mountain biking.

You can use before at the end of your question or answer.

Have you ever been bungee jumping before?

Yes, I've been bungee jumping before.

1 Read and circle. Then match.

- | | |
|---|---|
| 1 Have they / They have ever been to Dubai? | a No, I don't like fish. |
| 2 Have you ever had / have a pen pal? | b No, she hasn't. She's afraid of horses. |
| 3 Have you / Has you ever done an extreme sport? | c No, they've never been there. |
| 4 Has Ella never / ever been horseback riding? | d Yes, I did paragliding on vacation last year. |
| 5 Have you ever tried sushi before / never ? | e Yes, I have – she's very nice! |
| 6 Have ever you / you ever met my mom before? | f Yes, we used to send each other emails. |

2 Read and complete. Use ever, never, or before.

- 1 Have you taken a ballet class?
- 2 Has your mom been to India
- 3 I've forgotten my first day at school.
- 4 She's seen a movie at the movie theater
- 5 Have you broken a bone?
- 6 I've failed an English test

