The Bad Tempered Goat.

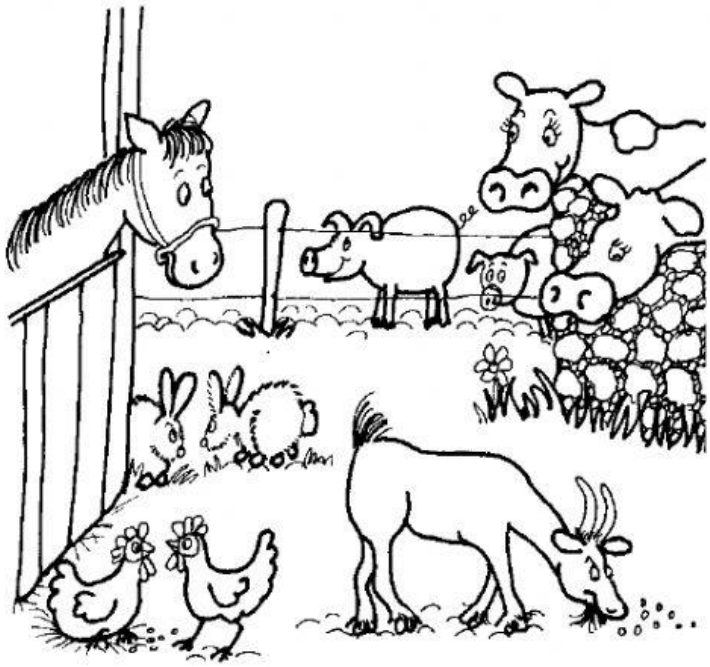

To Bee from Snake.

1

Farmer Brown has lots of animals on his farm.

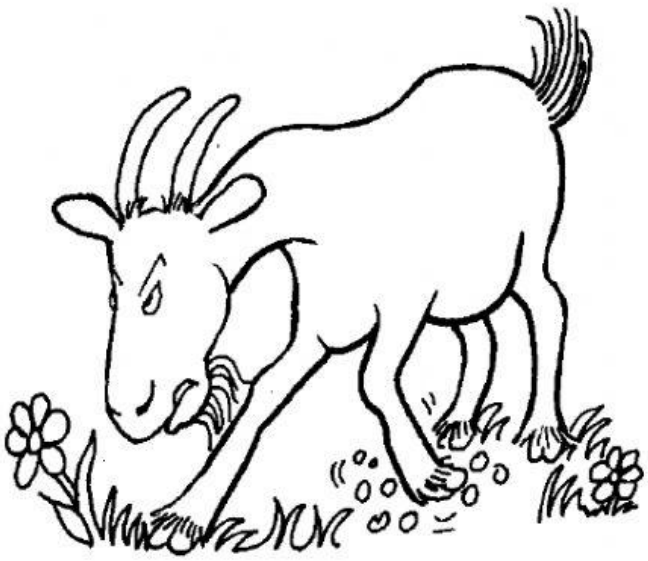

2

He has rabbits pigs cows horses chickens and a goat.

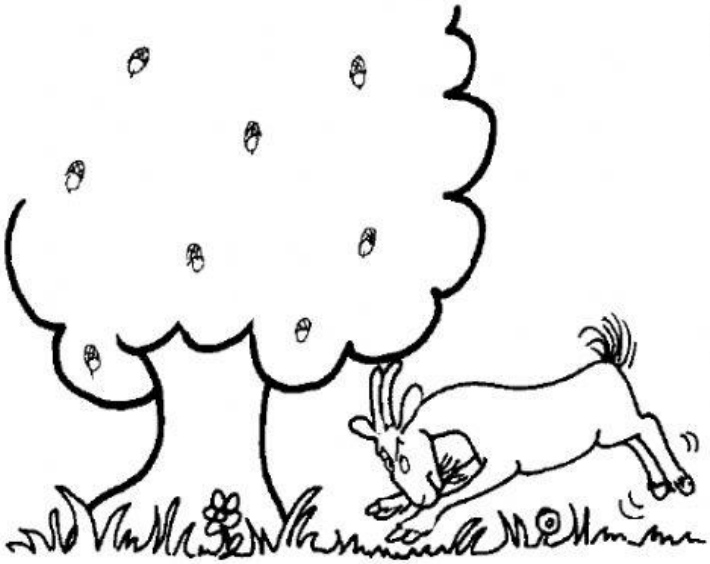

3

The goat had a very bad temper.

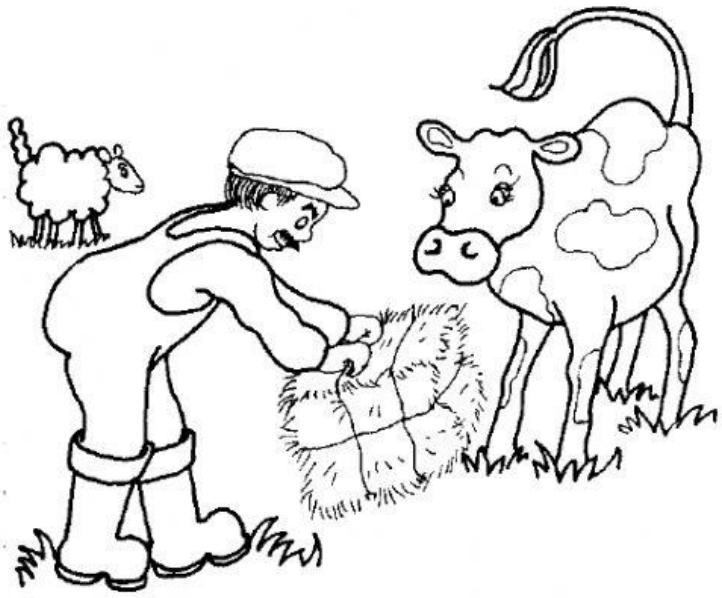

4

He used to shout very loudly,

and butt his horns against the tree trunk when he was angry.

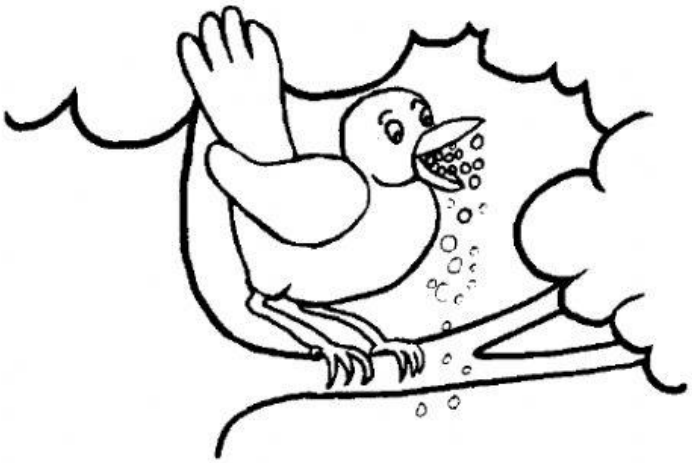

It was a Monday morning and Farmer Brown was feeding his animals.

He had just given the goat a big bag of oats ... when ...

... a cheeky robin took a quick mouthful and flew up to the lowest branch of the oak tree.

"Good Morning," he shouted down to the goat.

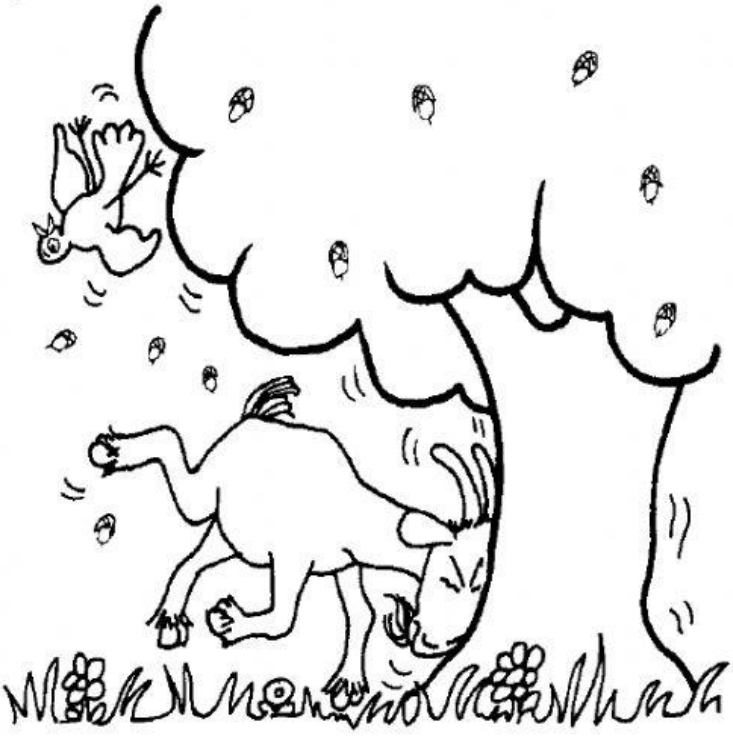

Then he flew down and sat on the goat's horns.

The goat got very angry.

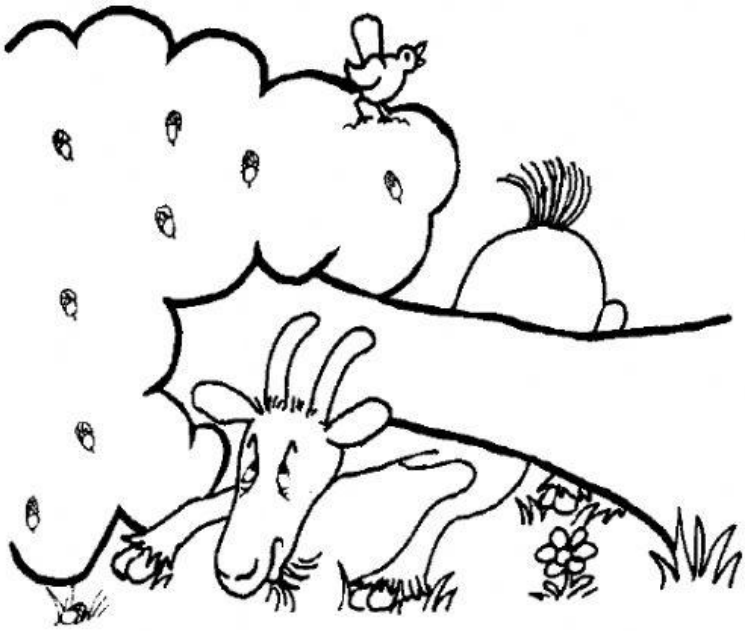

He ran up and down.

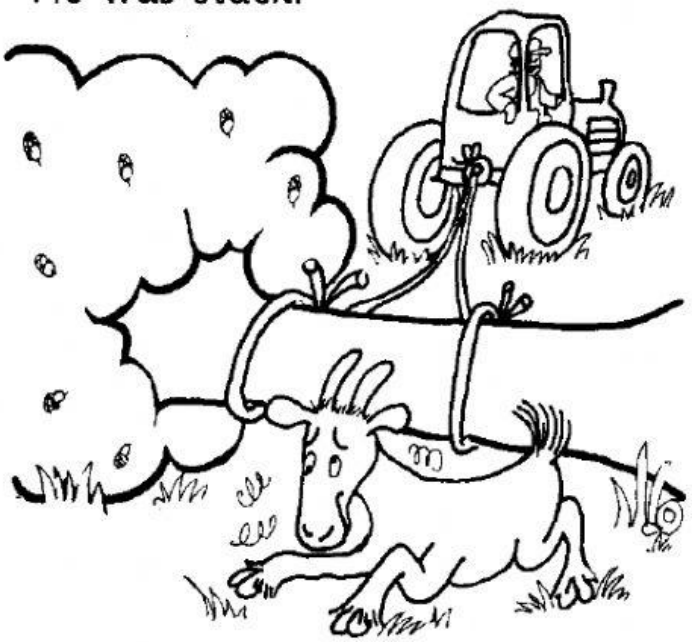

Then he butted the trunk of the oak tree.

crack! creak! crunch!

He butted the tree so hard that the tree fell on top of him.

He was stuck.

Farmer Brown had to get out his tractor to help the goat get free.

The goat felt very silly and promised never to be bad tempered again.
