

Rewrite the sentences using the words in capitals. Do NOT change the meaning.

1. "You should do your homework before going outside" ADVISED

Tom's mother his homework before going outside.

2. I'm sure he is here. I can see his car in front of the building. BE

He I can see his car in front of the building.

3. John broke his ankle during a football match. WHILE

John broke his ankle a football match.

4. I had to wait in a long queue to get into the exhibition, but that was OK. MIND

I in a long queue to get into the exhibition.

5. I arrived back from the exhibition a few moments ago. JUST

I back from the exhibition

6. I forgot my racket and I couldn't play tennis. BECAUSE

I couldn't play tennis my racket.