

GREY'S ANATOMY

Regular Verbs (and the verb TO BE)

Ellis Grey _____ (be) born in 1953. She _____ (study) to become a surgeon and _____ (marry) Thatcher Grey when she _____ (be) young.

In 1982, Ellis and Richard Webber, _____ (treat) Phillip Nichols, who _____ (end) up being the first patient in Seattle to be diagnosed with AIDS. They _____ (operate) on him but they _____ (not know) how AIDS was transmitted. Unfortunately, he _____ (not survive).

Ellis _____ (finish) med school and _____ (start) her surgical residency at Seattle Grace Hospital. She _____ (work) long hours and _____ (not dedicate) much time to her family. She _____ (be) often looked down on because she _____ (be) one of the few and first female surgeons

Irregular Verbs

When Richard _____ (leave) her, Ellis _____ (feel) devastated. She _____ (hurt) herself and _____ (not let) her daughter call for an ambulance. Eventually, Ellis _____ (fall) on the floor, unconscious. Ellis _____ (wake) up in the Emergency Room and _____ (find) out that she _____ (be) alive thanks to her daughter, Meredith. Eventually, Meredith _____ (find) out that as Ellis _____ (be) a great surgeon, she _____ (know) a lot about Biology.

Meredith and Ellis _____ (go) back home and _____ (not speak) about what happened.

Regular and Irregular Verbs

When the doctors _____ (treat) Ellis, they _____ (discover) that she _____ (be) pregnant. As a result, Ellis _____ (decide) to move to Boston. She _____ (stop) drinking wine and _____ (write) down what she _____ (eat) in her journals. She _____ (not want) her baby to be ill.

Ellis _____ (take) her daughter with her and they _____ (hide) in their apartment. Ellis _____ (cry) a lot, but Meredith _____ (not know) how to ask her what was happening.

Eventually, Ellis's water _____ (break) and she _____ (give) birth to Maggie in 1983. She _____ (give) her baby up for adoption. She _____ (want) to sign away all her rights to the baby, because she _____ (need) to start over after Richard _____ (leave) her.