Meet the bears!

A. Connect the questions with the answers:

1. How do brown bears use their sense of smell?

2. How do cubs learn hunting?

3. Where do brown bears live?

4. What do brown bears eat?

A. Brown bears eat salmon, sedge grass and flies

B. Brown bears live in rivers, meadows, forests.

C. Cubs learn hunting from their mom.

D. Brown bears use their sense of smell for communication and for sensing danger.

B. Read and complete this text with the words in the box.

water	roots	cubs	claws	brown	Alaska

Grizzly bears are a type of _____ bear. They live in _____. They live in the forests, meadows and tundra. Grizzly bears can run very fast. They have brown fur and four paws with long _____. They are usually peaceful creatures, but a mother grizzly bear is dangerous because she is very protective of her _____.

Grizzly bears eat berries, leaves, _____ and nuts. Sometimes they eat small animals and moose. They go fishing and eat lots of salmon in the_____.

C. How to make negatives:

go	don't go	are	aren't	live	don't live	can	can't

D. Click true or false. If it's false, transform the sentence into negative. Look at the example.

Grizzly bears go to Buenos Aires.	TRUE	FALSE	Grizzly bears don't go to Buenos Aires.
Grizzly bears go into a deep sleep during fall.	TRUE	FALSE
Grizzly bears are a type of polar bear.	TRUE	FALSE
Grizzly bears live in India	TRUE	FALSE
Grizzly bears live in Alaska.	TRUE	FALSE
A mother Grizzly bear can be dangerous.	TRUE	FALSE	