

Reading Comprehension-4

John has a dog named Max. He is a very good dog. Max rarely barks and never bites. He's very well behaved, except that he loves chewing John's sleepers.

Every day after school, John takes Max for a walk. "Time for a walk, Max," John calls. Max wags his tail and runs over to John. John clips Max's leash to his collar. John and Max like to walk to the neighborhood park. And every day, Max wants to go into the sandbox. But dogs are not allowed to play into the sandbox. Even though Max whines, cries and pulls on the leash, John doesn't let Max go.

1. What is the name of John's dog?
2. What is Max's favorite thing to chew?
3. Where does John take his dog everyday?
4. Does Max like to go walk?
5. Why doesn't John let Max go into the sandbox?
