

4.2 ANGLO-SAXON WOMEN

1) Mark the sentences as True or False:

- A. Women's role changed during the Anglo-Saxon period. _____
- B. They could marry whoever they wanted or leave their husbands. _____
- C. They couldn't have lands. _____
- D. They did many jobs which men didn't do. _____
- E. They shared chores in the house with men. _____
- F. Rich and poor women did the same jobs. _____
- G. Children didn't work in the house. _____
- H. Some women became famous and powerful in this period. _____

2) Drag the words next to their definitions:

TO OWN

CATHEDRAL

TO WEAVE

TO HARVEST

ABBAY

MONK

NUN

- A. To form fabric by interlacing long threads. _____
- B. The building occupied by a community of monks or nuns. _____
- C. The principal church of a diocese, where the bishop lives. _____
- D. A woman member of a religious community, who dedicates her life to god. _____
- E. To gather crops. _____
- F. To have as one's own, to possess. _____
- G. A man who is a member of a religious community, typically living under the vows of poverty, chastity and obedience. _____

