HAVE GOT/HAS GOT

	Affirmative		Negative
I You We They	have got ('ve got)	blue eyes	haven't got	big feet
He She It	has got ('s got)		hasn't got

I. WRITE HAVE GOT OR HAS GOT.

Example → I have got a big dog.

1. Ann _____a lot of money.

2. You _____long hair.

3. They _____a new house.

4. He _____a beautiful boat.

II. CHOOSE THE CORRECT FORM.

Example → I have got / has got a nice car.

1. He have got / has got a huge dog.

2. They have got / has got a big boat.

3. Jim have got / has got three dogs.

4. My father have got / has got two sisters.

III. USE SHORT FORMS. ('S GOT / 'VE GOT)

Example → Sara has got a nice view from her balcony. → Sara 's got a nice view from her balcony.

1. They have got three dogs and five cats. → _____

2. I have got a cake in the fridge. → _____

3. Mary has got two brothers. → _____

4. We have got long hair. → _____