

١

	cabul							Marks (40
					hala			Mark: / 10
).I	te the sentend
a	nxious	challenging	gripping
1	Му ра	rents were very			of me when I so	ored a goal in the fo	ootball match.
2	You're	e looking at your	mobile phon	e again! A	Are you	abou	t something?
3	This b	ook is		I can't	put it down!
4	It was	very		last night	 the big tree at t 	he end of our garde	en fell down!
5	I don'	like doing easy	things, so I v	vant a		job when I leave	university.
								Mark: / 5
	9 8	•
∟19	sten	ıng
						ences. Match the	speakers (1–5) with the nts (A–F). The ker had a ve
В		ker was surp			ioc.
С	201	ker helped to		1.00
D	S 12	ker had to re
	30 0			iiigs.
E F		ker did a we		nathina n
Б	Spear	ker feels bet	iter about sor	neuling n	ow.			$
								Mark: / 5
_ist	ening	1
		24						(T) (T) (F) 0
33		an menuan pelikur	- 1 - 1 - 1 - 1 - 1 - 1 - 1 - 1 - 1 - 1	5.6	w ^a n ne sens		sentences tru	e (T) or false (F)?
1					vorried about the		-
2		to the second expression			ywhere on the jo	urriey.	-
3		as well prepared	$1	ě.	2	a abia
4		70407-202 - 2040	100 20 40	500	who worked on the	A. 1. 1. 1. 1. 1. 1. 1. 1. 1. 1. 1. 1. 1.	-
5	⊏ila tr	lought that her c	amping knife	was the	most useful thing		_
								Mark: / 5
ist	ening	1

	7 Listen to four people talking about their lifestyles and attitudes to money. Management (A–E). There is one extra statement.
Α	Speaker would prefer not to work for too many years.
В	S Speaker gets fresh ingredients from very close to where they live.
C	Speaker prefers not to buy new things.
D	Speaker says they aren't very good at saving money.
E	Speaker sometimes doesn't spend any money for a whole day.
Rea	ading
	Read the blog posts. Match the writers (Emily, Mary, Stella and Cameron) with the One writer matches with two sentences.	e sentences (1–5
re ui th	chirbnb is a great idea. People rent out rooms in their homes so that travellers can stay in a seal house rather than a hotel. There are places to stay all over the world and some are quite unusual. When I went to Paris, I stayed in Nathalie's spare room in her apartment. Although the room was nothing special, it was great to stay with a real French person. She helped me with my French and told me about some good places to go that weren't in my travel guide.
. 0	One day, she even took me to her favourite café. So actually, instead of going to touristy claces, I did what the locals do instead.
. 0	One day, she even took me to her favourite café. So actually, instead of going to touristy pl	One day, she even took me to her favourite café. So actually, instead of going to touristy laces, I did what the locals do instead.
I'de pe car in the	One day, she even took me to her favourite café. So actually, instead of going to touristy laces, I did what the locals do instead. Emily, Manchester
I'de pe car in the	one day, she even took me to her favourite café. So actually, instead of going to touristy laces, I did what the locals do instead. Emily, Manchester 've only been camping once, but it was such a lot of work to put the tent up that I've never one it since. That's why my son booked a weekend of glamping for us. Glamping is very opular in the UK. It's like camping, but without the hard work. When we arrived at the ampsite, everything was ready for us. We stayed in a Mongolian tent called a yurt. We slept in real beds and cooked our food on a fire. We even had newspapers and fresh orange juice in the morning. I loved it, but my son didn't think that it was worth all that money. I understand

I have the best holidays when I go to music festivals. My favourite is called WOMAD, which stands for World of Music and Dance. They happen all over the world, but the one I go to is in Wiltshire in July. I love it because you can listen to music from around the world and you can try things that you've never done before, too. There's lots of great food to eat, yoga classes, crafts and entertainment. I never get bored. Actually, I go every year, and I've already got my tickets for next year because you get a discount if you buy them early.

Stella, Cardiff

One of my favourite holidays was on a canal boat on the river Thames. It was such a relaxing holiday. You're not allowed to travel very fast on the river, so it takes ages to get anywhere and you have time to watch the ducks and look at other wildlife. My life is very busy, so it was great to have some time just to look at things. You also go past some beautiful houses on the river. I would love to do it again.

Cameron, Bristol

This writer:

6 goes on the same type of holiday regularly. 7 enjoyed a holiday more because they didn't have to do anything. 8 felt they learned more about a place because of where they stayed. 9 went on a holiday arranged by a family member. 10 liked the slower way of life. Read the text. Match sentences A–G with gaps 1–5. There are two extra sentences. Storm chasers North America is famous for its wide open spaces, and this landscape can cause some very exciting weather. In fact, the USA has more tornadoes than any other country — there are about 1,200 every year in a part of the country called "Tornado Alley." This is in the centre, from North Dakota in the north to Texas and Louisian ain the south. 1 — They are just normal people, but their favourile activity is following storms and getting as close as possible to a tornadol We call these people 'storn chasers', and it's quite easy to become a storn chaser these days. 2 Gabe Matthews is a storm chaser, and he follows the weather as often as possible. Seeing a powerful tornado is an amazing experience, says Gabe, 'but it isn't easy to be in the right place at the right time. My friends and line det do do a lot of work to find a tornado and get to it. 3 Then we have to wait for ages before we see the weather changing. But when that starts to happen, it's so exciting.¹ Many people become storm chasers because they like the danger. But Gabe is always very careful. He tries to get close to the centre of the tornado, but not to close. 'Once I saw cars flying through the air,' says Gabe, 'and a big American truck! 4 — You don't want those cars to hit you!' Another reason people chase storms is to film them. A news channel recently used one of Gabe's films. 'That film was exciting because it was a strong storm and it caused a lot of damage. It was great to get it on TV.' However, Gabe was even prouder of something else that he did. 'My friends and I heard screams when we were filming.' 5 — They couldn't get out, so they were very relieved when we rescued them. It was gre
8 felt they learned more about a place because of where they stayed. 9 went on a holiday arranged by a family member. 10 liked the slower way of life. Read the text. Match sentences A–G with gaps 1–5. There are two extra sentences. Storm chasers North America is famous for its wide open spaces, and this landscape can cause some very exciting weather. In fact, the USA has more tornadoes than any other country – there are about 1,200 every year in a part of the country called "Tornado Alley." This is in the centre, from North Dakota in the north to Texas and Louisiana in the south. "In they are just normal people, but their favourite activity is following storms and getting as close as possible to a tornado! We call these people storm chasers", and it's quite easy to become a storm chaser these days. 2—Gabe Matthews is a storm chaser, and he follows the weather as often as possible. "Seeing a powerful tornado is an amazing experience," says Gabe, "but it isn't easy to be in the right place at the right time. My friends and I need to do a lot of work to find a tornado and get to it. 3—Then we have to wait for ages before we see the weather changing. But when that starts to happen, it's so exciting." Many people become storm chasers because they like the danger. But Gabe is always very careful. He tries to get close to the centre of the tornado, but not too close. 'Once I saw cars flying through the air,' says Gabe, 'and a big American truck! 4——You don't want those cars to hit you!" Another reason people chase storms is to film them. A news channel recently used one of Gabe's films. 'That film was exciting because it was a strong storm and it caused a lot of damage. It was great to get it on TV.' However, Gabe was even prouder of something else that fold. My friends and I heard screams when we were filming. 5—— They couldn't get out, so they were very relieved when we rescued them. It was great to help people like that.' Perhaps you have to be a little crazy to be a storm chaser. Certainly, some people say t	6	goes on the same type of holiday regularly.
9 went on a holiday arranged by a family member. 10 liked the slower way of life. Read the text. Match sentences A–G with gaps 1–5. There are two extra sentences. Storm chasers North America is famous for its wide open spaces, and this landscape can cause some very exciting weather. In fact, the USA has more tornadose than any other country —there are about 1,200 every year in a part of the country called "Tornado Alley." This is in the centre, from North Dakota in the north to Texas and Louisiana in the south. 1—They are just normal people, but their favourite activity is following storms and getting as close as possible to a tornadol We call these people "storm chasers", and it's quite easy to become a storm chaser these days. 2—Gabe Matthews is a storm chaser, and he follows the weather as often as possible. "Seeing a powerful tornado is an amazing experience," says Gabe, "but it isn't easy to be in the right place at the right time. My friends and I need to do a lot of work to find a tornado and get to it. 3—Then we have to wait for ages before we see the weather changing. But when that starts to happen, it's so exciting.* Many people become storm chasers because they like the danger. But Gabe is always very careful. He tries to get close to the centre of the tornado, but not too close. 'Once I saw cars flying through the air,' says Gabe, 'and a big American truck! 4—You don't want those cars to hit you! Another reason people chase storms is to film them. A news channel recently used one of Gabe's films. 'That film was exciting because it was a strong storm and it caused a lot of damage. It was great to get it on TV. However, Gabe was even prouder of something else that he did. My friends and I heard screams when were filming. 5—They couldn't get out, so they were very relieved when we rescued them. It was great to help people like that.' Perhaps you have to be a little crazy to be a storm chaser. Certainly, some people say that storm chasers by sut want to do something thrilling, But they're often t	7	enjoyed a holiday more because they didn't have to do anything.
Read the text. Match sentences A–G with gaps 1–5. There are two extra sentences. Storm chasers North America is famous for its wide open spaces, and this landscape can cause some very exciting weather. In fact, the USA has more tornadoes than any other country – there are about 1,200 every year in a part of the country called Tornado Alley. This is in the centre, from North Dakota in the north to Texas and Louisiana in the south. They are just normal people, but their favourite activity is following storms and getting as close as possible to a tornado! We call these people 'storm chasers', and it's quite easy to become a storm chaser these days. Gabe Matthews is a storm chaser, and he follows the weather as often as possible. 'Seeing a powerful tornado is an amazing experience,' says Gabe, but it isn't easy to be in the right time. My friends and I need to do a lot of work to find a tornado and get to it. Then we have to wait for ages before we see the weather changing. But when that starts to happen, it's so exciting.' Many people become storm chasers because they like the danger. But Gabe is always very careful. He tries to get close to the centre of the tornado, but not too close. 'Once I saw cars flying through the air,' says Gabe, 'and a big American truck! — You don't want those cars to hit you!' Another reason people chase storms is to film them. A news channel recently used one of Gabe's films. 'That film was exciting because it was a strong storm and it caused a lot of damage. It was great to get it on TV.' However, Gabe was even prouder of something else that he did. 'My friends and I heard screams when we were filming. Perhaps you have to be a little crazy to be a storm chaser. Certainly, some people say that storm chasers you have to be a little crazy to be a storm chaser. Certainly, some people say that storm chasers you have to be a little crazy to be a storm chaser. Certainly, some people say that storm chasers you have to be a little crazy to be a storm chaser. Certainly, some people	8	felt they learned more about a place because of where they stayed.
Read the text. Match sentences A–G with gaps 1–5. There are two extra sentences. Storm chasers North America is famous for its wide open spaces, and this landscape can cause some very exciting weather. In fact, the USA has more tornadoes than any other country—there are about 1,200 every year in a part of the country called "Tornado Alley." This is in the centre, from North Dakota in the north to Texas and Louisiana in the south. ' They are just normal people, but their favourite activity is following storms and getting as close as possible to a tornadol We call these people 'storm chasers', and it's quite easy to become a storm chaser these days. 2 Sabe Matthews is a storm chaser, and he follows the weather as often as possible. 'Seeing a powerful tornado is an amazing experience,' says Gabe, 'but it isn't easy to be in the right place at the right time. My friends and I need to do a lot of work to find a tornado and get to it. 3 Then we have to wait for ages before we see the weather changing. But when that starts to happen, it's so exciting.' Many people become storm chasers because they like the danger. But Gabe is always very careful. He tries to get close to the centre of the tornado, but not too close. 'Once I saw cars flying through the air,' says Gabe, 'and a big American truck! 4 You don't want those cars to hit you!' Another reason people chase storms is to film them. A news channel recently used one of Gabe's films. 'That film was exciting because it was a strong storm and it caused a lot of damage. It was great to get it on TV: However, Gabe was even prouder of something else that he did. 'My friends and I heard screams when we were filming. 5 They couldn't get out, so they were very relieved when we rescued them. It was great to help people like that.' Perhaps you have to be a little crazy to be a storm chaser. Certainly, some people say that storm chasers just want to do something thrilling, But they're often the first on the scene, giving important information to the r	9	went on a holiday arranged by a family member.
Storm chasers North America is famous for its wide open spaces, and this landscape can cause some very exciting weather. In fact, the USA has more tornadoes than any other country – there are about 1,200 every year in a part of the country called "Tornado Alley." This is in the centre, from North Dakota in the north to Texas and Louisiana in the south. 1 They are just normal people, but their favourite activity is following storms and getting as close as possible to a tornado! We call these people 'storm chasers', and it's quite easy to become a storm chaser these days. 2 Seeing a powerful tornado is an amazing experience, 'says Gabe, 'but it isn't easy to be in the right time. My friends and I need to do a lot of work to find a tornado and get to it. 3 Then we have to wait for ages before we see the weather changing. But when that starts to happen, it's so exciting.' Many people become storm chasers because they like the danger. But Gabe is always very careful. He tries to get close to the centre of the tornado, but not too close. 'Once I saw cars flying through the air,' says Gabe, 'and a big American truck! 4 You don't want those cars to hit you! Another reason people chase storms is to film them. A news channel recently used one of Gabe's films. 'That film was exciting because it was a strong storm and it caused a lot of damage. It was great to get it on TV. 'However, Gabe was even prouder of something else that he did. 'My friends and I heard screams when we were filming. 5 They couldn't get out, so they were very relieved when we rescued them. It was great to help people like that.' Perhaps you have to be a little crazy to be a storm chaser. Certainly, some people say that storm chasers just want to do something thrilling. But they're often the first on the scene, giving important information to the rescue services. So actually they often save lives. A When we know that a big tornado is coming, we have to drive a long way. B All you need is a mobile phone, a good car and GPS. C He wasn't very happy	10	liked the slower way of life.
Storm chasers North America is famous for its wide open spaces, and this landscape can cause some very exciting weather. In fact, the USA has more tornadoes than any other country – there are about 1,200 every year in a part of the country called "Tornado Alley." This is in the centre, from North Dakota in the north to Texas and Louisiana in the south. 1 They are just normal people, but their favourite activity is following storms and getting as close as possible to a tornado! We call these people 'storm chasers', and it's quite easy to become a storm chaser these days. 2 Seeing a powerful tornado is an amazing experience, 'says Gabe, 'but it isn't easy to be in the right time. My friends and I need to do a lot of work to find a tornado and get to it. 3 Then we have to wait for ages before we see the weather changing. But when that starts to happen, it's so exciting.' Many people become storm chasers because they like the danger. But Gabe is always very careful. He tries to get close to the centre of the tornado, but not too close. 'Once I saw cars flying through the air,' says Gabe, 'and a big American truck! 4 You don't want those cars to hit you! Another reason people chase storms is to film them. A news channel recently used one of Gabe's films. 'That film was exciting because it was a strong storm and it caused a lot of damage. It was great to get it on TV. 'However, Gabe was even prouder of something else that he did. 'My friends and I heard screams when we were filming. 5 They couldn't get out, so they were very relieved when we rescued them. It was great to help people like that.' Perhaps you have to be a little crazy to be a storm chaser. Certainly, some people say that storm chasers just want to do something thrilling. But they're often the first on the scene, giving important information to the rescue services. So actually they often save lives. A When we know that a big tornado is coming, we have to drive a long way. B All you need is a mobile phone, a good car and GPS. C He wasn't very happy
Storm chasers North America is famous for its wide open spaces, and this landscape can cause some very exciting weather. In fact, the USA has more tornadoes than any other country – there are about 1,200 every year in a part of the country called "Tornado Alley." This is in the centre, from North Dakota in the north to Texas and Louisiana in the south. 1 They are just normal people, but their favourite activity is following storms and getting as close as possible to a tornado! We call these people 'storm chasers', and it's quite easy to become a storm chaser these days. 2 Seeing a powerful tornado is an amazing experience, 'says Gabe, 'but it isn't easy to be in the right time. My friends and I need to do a lot of work to find a tornado and get to it. 3 Then we have to wait for ages before we see the weather changing. But when that starts to happen, it's so exciting.' Many people become storm chasers because they like the danger. But Gabe is always very careful. He tries to get close to the centre of the tornado, but not too close. 'Once I saw cars flying through the air,' says Gabe, 'and a big American truck! 4 You don't want those cars to hit you! Another reason people chase storms is to film them. A news channel recently used one of Gabe's films. 'That film was exciting because it was a strong storm and it caused a lot of damage. It was great to get it on TV. 'However, Gabe was even prouder of something else that he did. 'My friends and I heard screams when we were filming. 5 They couldn't get out, so they were very relieved when we rescued them. It was great to help people like that.' Perhaps you have to be a little crazy to be a storm chaser. Certainly, some people say that storm chasers just want to do something thrilling. But they're often the first on the scene, giving important information to the rescue services. So actually they often save lives. A When we know that a big tornado is coming, we have to drive a long way. B All you need is a mobile phone, a good car and GPS. C He wasn't very happy	Re	ading
Storm chasers North America is famous for its wide open spaces, and this landscape can cause some very exciting weather. In fact, the USA has more tornadoes than any other country – there are about 1,200 every year in a part of the country called Tornado Alley. This is in the centre, from North Dakota in the north to Texas and Louisiana in the south. They are just normal people, but their favourite activity is following storms and getting as close as possible to a tornado! We call these people 'storm chasers', and it's quite easy to become a storm chaser these days. Gabe Matthews is a storm chaser, and he follows the weather as often as possible. Seeing a powerful tornado is an amazing experience, 'says Gabe, 'but it isn't easy to be in the right place at the right time. My friends and I need to do a lot of work to find a tornado and get to it. Then we have to wait for ages before we see the weather changing. But when that starts to happen, it's so exciting.' Many people become storm chasers because they like the danger. But Gabe is always very careful. He tries to get close to the centre of the tornado, but not too close. Once I saw cars flying through the air,' says Gabe, 'and a big American truck! Another reason people chase storms is to film them. A news channel recently used one of Gabe's films. That film was exciting because it was a strong storm and it caused a lot of damage. It was great to get it on TV: However, Gabe was even prouder of something else that he did. 'My friends and I heard screams when we were filming. They couldn't get out, so they were very relieved when we rescued them. It was great to help people like that.' Perhaps you have to be a little crazy to be a storm chaser. Certainly, some people say that storm chasers just want to do something thrilling, But they're often the first on the scene, giving important information to the rescue services. So actually they often save lives. A When we know that a big tornado is coming, we have to drive a long way. B All you need is a
North America is famous for its wide open spaces, and this landscape can cause some very exciting weather. In fact, the USA has more tornadoes than any other country — there are about 1,200 every year in a part of the country called 'Tornado Alley'. This is in the centre, from North Dakota in the north to Texas and Louisiana in the south. 3 They are just normal people, but their favourite activity is following storms and getting as close as possible to a tornado! We call these people 'storm chasers', and it's quite easy to become a storm chaser these days. 2 Gabe Matthews is a storm chaser, and he follows the weather as often as possible. 'Seeing a powerful tornado is an amazing experience,' says Gabe, 'but it isn't easy to be in the right place at the right time. My friends and I need to do a lot of work to find a tornado and get to it. 3 Then we have to wait for ages before we see the weather changing. But when that starts to happen, it's so exciting.' Many people become storm chasers because they like the danger. But Gabe is always very careful. He tries to get close to the centre of the tornado, but not too close. 'Once I saw cars flying through the air,' says Gabe, 'and a big American truck! 4 You don't want those cars to hit you!' Another reason people chase storms is to film them. A news channel recently used one of Gabe's films. 'That film was exciting because it was a strong storm and it caused a lot of damage. It was great to get it on TV.' However, Gabe was even prouder of something else that he did. 'My friends and I heard screams when we were filming. 5 They couldn't get out, so they were very relieved when we rescued them. It was great to help people like that.' Perhaps you have to be a little crazy to be a storm chaser. Certainly, some people say that storm chasers just want to do something thrilling, But they're often the first on the scene, giving important information to the rescue services. So actually they often save lives. A When we know that a big tornad	,	tad the text. materi sentences A=0 with gaps 1=3. There are two extra sentences.
exciting weather. In fact, the USA has more tornadoes than any other country — there are about 1,200 every year in a part of the country called 'Tornado Alley'. This is in the centre, from North Dakota in the north to Texas and Louislana in the south. 1 — They are just normal people, but their favourite activity is following storms and getting as close as possible to a tornado! We call these people 'storm chasers', and it's quite easy to become a storm chaser these days. 2 — Gabe Matthews is a storm chaser, and he follows the weather as often as possible. 'Seeing a powerful tornado is an amazing experience,' says Gabe, 'but it isn't easy to be in the right place at the right time. My friends and I need to do a lot of work to find a tornado and get to it. 3 — Then we have to wait for ages before we see the weather changing. But when that starts to happen, it's so exciting.' Many people become storm chasers because they like the danger. But Gabe is always very careful. He tries to get close to the centre of the tornado, but not too close. 'Once I saw cars flying through the air,' says Gabe, 'and a big American truck! 4 — You don't want those cars to hit you!' Another reason people chase storms is to film them. A news channel recently used one of Gabe's films. 'That film was exciting because it was a strong storm and it caused a lot of damage. It was great to get it on TV.' However, Gabe was even prouder of something else that he did. 'My friends and I heard screams when we were filming. 5 — They couldn't get out, so they were very relieved when we rescued them. It was great to help people like that.' Perhaps you have to be a little crazy to be a storm chaser. Certainly, some people say that storm chasers just want to do something thrilling, But they're often the first on the scene, giving important information to the rescue services. So actually they often save lives. A When we know that a big tornado is coming, we have to drive a long way. B All you need is a mobile phone, a good car and GPS. C He wasn't v	s	torm chasers powerful tornado is an amazing experience,' says Gabe, 'but it isn't easy to be in the right place at the right time. My friends and I need to do a lot of work to find a tornado and get to it. Then we have to wait for ages before we see the weather changing. But when that starts to happen, it's so exciting.' Many people become storm chasers because they like the danger. But Gabe is always very careful. He tries to get close to the centre of the tornado, but not too close. 'Once I saw cars flying through the air,' says Gabe, 'and a big American truck! 4 You don't want those cars to hit you!' Another reason people chase storms is to film them. A news channel recently used one of Gabe's films. 'That film was exciting because it was a strong storm and it caused a lot of damage. It was great to get it on TV.' However, Gabe was even prouder of something else that he did. 'My friends and I heard screams when we were filming. 5 They couldn't get out, so they were very relieved when we rescued them. It was great to help people like that.' Perhaps you have to be a little crazy to be a storm chaser. Certainly, some people say that storm chasers just want to do something thrilling, But they're often the first on the scene, giving important information to the rescue services. So actually they often save lives. A When we know that a big tornado is coming, we have to drive a long way. B All you need is a mobile phone, a good car and GPS. C He wasn't very happy when he had to go to hospital. D The weather is changing in all parts of the world. E That was really exciting, but we watched it from far enough away. F It's also in this area that there are hundreds of people studying the weather.	ex 1, D th	aciting weather. In fact, the USA has more tornadoes than any other country – there are about 200 every year in a part of the country called 'Tornado Alley'. This is in the centre, from North akota in the north to Texas and Louisiana in the south. They are just normal people, but eir favourite activity is following storms and getting as close as possible to a tornado! We call careful. He tries to get close to the centre of the tornado, but not too close. 'Once I saw cars flying through the air,' says Gabe, 'and a big American truck! 4 You don't want those cars to hit you!' Another reason people chase storms is to film them. A news channel recently used one of Gabe's films. 'That film was exciting because it was a strong storm and it caused a lot of damage. It was great to get it on TV.' However, Gabe was even prouder of something else that he did. 'My friends and I heard screams when we were filming. 5 They couldn't get out, so they were very relieved when we rescued them. It was great to help people like that.' Perhaps you have to be a little crazy to be a storm chaser. Certainly, some people say that storm chasers just want to do something thrilling, But they're often the first on the scene, giving important information to the rescue services. So actually they often save lives. A When we know that a big tornado is coming, we have to drive a long way. B All you need is a mobile phone, a good car and GPS. C He wasn't very happy when he had to go to hospital. D The weather is changing in all parts of the world. E That was really exciting, but we watched it from far enough away. F It's also in this area that there are hundreds of people studying the weather.	th Ti	owerful tornado is an amazing experience,' says Gabe, 'but it isn't easy to be in the right place at e right time. My friends and I need to do a lot of work to find a tornado and get to it. 3nen we have to wait for ages before we see the weather changing. But when that starts to films. 'That film was exciting because it was a strong storm and it caused a lot of damage. It was great to get it on TV.' However, Gabe was even prouder of something else that he did. 'My friends and I heard screams when we were filming. ⁵ They couldn't get out, so they were very relieved when we rescued them. It was great to help people like that.' Perhaps you have to be a little crazy to be a storm chaser. Certainly, some people say that storm chasers just want to do something thrilling, But they're often the first on the scene, giving important information to the rescue services. So actually they often save lives. A When we know that a big tornado is coming, we have to drive a long way. B All you need is a mobile phone, a good car and GPS. C He wasn't very happy when he had to go to hospital. D The weather is changing in all parts of the world. E That was really exciting, but we watched it from far enough away. F It's also in this area that there are hundreds of people studying the weather.	ca th	areful. He tries to get close to the centre of the tornado, but not too close. 'Once I saw cars flying rough the air,' says Gabe, 'and a big American truck! ⁴ You don't want those cars to hit chasers just want to do something thrilling, But they're often the first on the scene, giving important information to the rescue services. So actually they often save lives. A When we know that a big tornado is coming, we have to drive a long way. B All you need is a mobile phone, a good car and GPS. C He wasn't very happy when he had to go to hospital. D The weather is changing in all parts of the world. E That was really exciting, but we watched it from far enough away. F It's also in this area that there are hundreds of people studying the weather.	fil gr ar	ms. 'That film was exciting because it was a strong storm and it caused a lot of damage. It was eat to get it on TV.' However, Gabe was even prouder of something else that he did. 'My friends and I heard screams when we were filming. ⁵ They couldn't get out, so they were very
 B All you need is a mobile phone, a good car and GPS. C He wasn't very happy when he had to go to hospital. D The weather is changing in all parts of the world. E That was really exciting, but we watched it from far enough away. F It's also in this area that there are hundreds of people studying the weather. 	cł	nasers just want to do something thrilling, But they're often the first on the scene, giving
 B All you need is a mobile phone, a good car and GPS. C He wasn't very happy when he had to go to hospital. D The weather is changing in all parts of the world. E That was really exciting, but we watched it from far enough away. F It's also in this area that there are hundreds of people studying the weather. 	Α	When we know that a hig torgado is coming, we have to drive a long way
C He wasn't very happy when he had to go to hospital. D The weather is changing in all parts of the world. E That was really exciting, but we watched it from far enough away. F It's also in this area that there are hundreds of people studying the weather.	0.00	(1) (2) (3) (4) (4) (4) (4) (4) (4) (4) (4) (4) (4
D The weather is changing in all parts of the world. E That was really exciting, but we watched it from far enough away. F It's also in this area that there are hundreds of people studying the weather.	1000
E That was really exciting, but we watched it from far enough away. F It's also in this area that there are hundreds of people studying the weather.	- 5
F It's also in this area that there are hundreds of people studying the weather.	-
	0	The followed the sound and found some people inside a building.	Made	