

Read this information carefully

Adverbs of manner give us more information about verbs, and describe HOW things happen.

Read this example:

- My sister danced at the theatre yesterday.
- How did she dance?
- She danced beautifully.

This is an adverb of manner.

The main verb in this sentence is "dance", and by asking "How..?" we get more information about it ("beautifully" = adverb of manner).

How do we form adverbs of manner?

They are usually formed by adding -ly at the end of the adjectives.

slow → slowly beautiful → beautifully

Sometimes there are changes in spelling when the adjective ends in -y or when the adjective ends in -e:

happy → happily
easy → easily

horrible → horribly
terrible → terribly

And there are some irregular adverbs:

good → well fast → fast

Tick only the ADJECTIVES (example: fast, strong, ...)

beautiful

good careful

snorkel

happy

birds

reading

slow

quick

horrible

Maths

dangerous

Now, drag the adverbs of manner and drop them next to the corresponding adjectives. Then, listen to their pronunciation.

beautiful

quick

horrible

dangerous

slow

happy

good

careful

carefully

beautifully

well

dangerously

slowly

quickly

happily

horribly