

USE OF ENGLISH 1

1 Complete the sentences with these words.

however whatever whenever wherever whichever whoever

- 1 I come to London, I always visit the Science Museum.
- 2 Anyone can enjoy this experience, young or old they are.
- 3 It's such a green city that you live, there's probably a park close by.
- 4 Would hid my school bag please tell me where it is!
- 5 you do, don't try driving across the city during the rush hour!
- 6 The journey takes about two hours, of the two routes you choose.

2 Rewrite the sentences using the words in Ex 1.

- 0 The team which gets the most points will go through to the next round.
Whichever team gets the most points will go through to the next round.
- 1 The person who finishes first will win the prize.
.....
- 2 I'm sure we will succeed no matter how difficult it might be.
.....
- 3 It doesn't matter what happens, you'll be fine.
.....
- 4 You can call me any time you need to talk.
.....
- 5 It doesn't matter where he is, the police will find him.
.....
- 6 It doesn't matter which hotel you stay in, I'm sure you'll have a great holiday.
.....

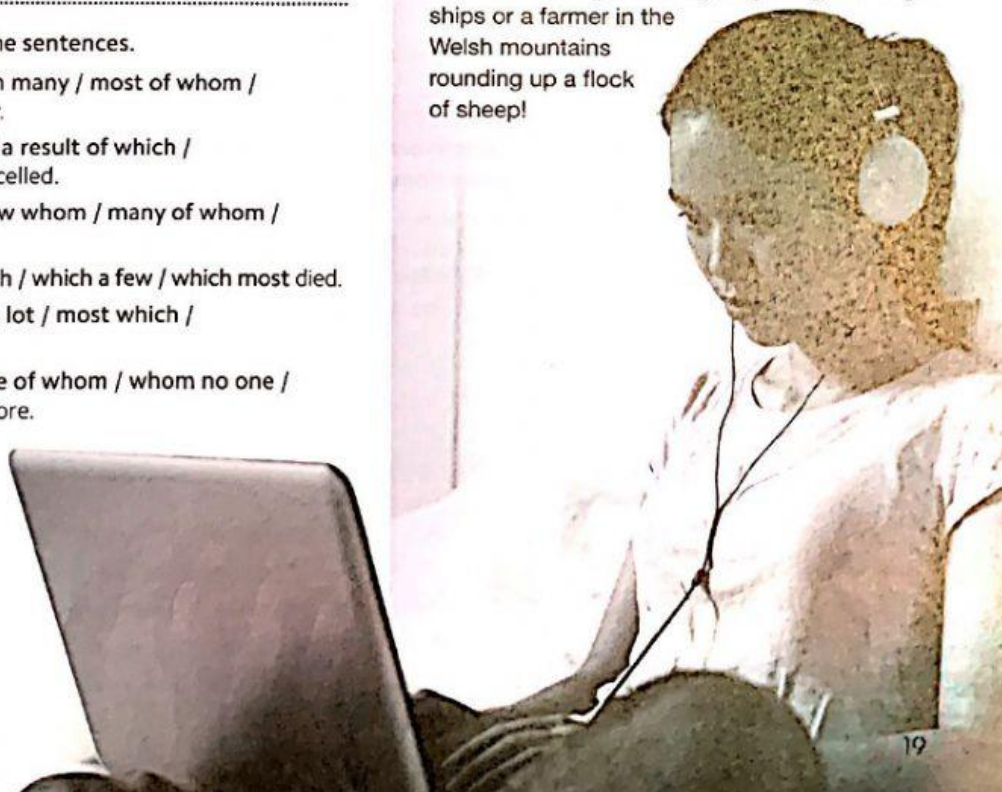

3 Choose the correct words to complete the sentences.

- 1 He has a large number of friends, whom many / most of whom / lots of who were at the party yesterday.
- 2 It rained all afternoon, of which result / a result of which / as a result of which the match was cancelled.
- 3 The chess club has thirty members, a few whom / many of whom / whom most play several times a week.
- 4 I forgot to water the plants, some of which / which a few / which most died.
- 5 He's got a lot of old equipment, which a lot / most which / much of which is now beyond repair.
- 6 She invited fifteen family members, none of whom / whom no one / whom a few had been to Edinburgh before.

4 e Read the article and complete the gaps with one word only.

The British Library sound archive

Sounds can easily transport you in your mind to a different time or place. The British Library sound archive website is a wonderful feast ¹ sound! It is an online collection of over 50,000 sounds, most of ² were uploaded by enthusiastic individuals. It includes examples of different kinds of music, from classical music to pop tunes and traditional music from all around the world. So ³ your musical tastes are, you should be able to find recordings you will enjoy listening to. In addition ⁴ this, there are some wonderful wildlife recordings, including examples of rare animals and birds. Sit back and listen to a wolf howling in Canada or lions roaring in Africa. Because the collection is online, you can listen ⁵ you are in the world, and immediately be transported to a different place. There is also a collection of different British accents, recorded by people all over the UK, many of ⁶ took part because they were keen to preserve their local ways of speaking. But the best and ⁷ fascinating sounds are those that evoke a way of life from the past. Close your eyes and allow ⁸ to be transported back and listen to an old-fashioned steam train, a lighthouse giving a fog warning to ships or a farmer in the Welsh mountains rounding up a flock of sheep!

2 Perceptions

USE OF ENGLISH 2

1 Complete the sentences with nouns formed from these words.

brilliant deny disclose intrude press

- 1 There's a lot of on teenage girls to look good.
- 2 No one believed his We were all convinced he had taken the money.
- 3 The public demanded full of all the facts.
- 4 We were all impressed by his as an actor.
- 5 Reading someone else's texts is an on their privacy.

2 Rewrite the sentences using a noun formed from the word in bold. Add any other necessary words.

- 0 I don't want anything to distract me today.
I don't want today.
- 1 I was surprised when Sam refused to help us.
I was surprised by help us.
- 2 She doesn't need other people to approve of her.
She doesn't need other people.
- 3 He didn't try to hide the fact that he was annoyed.
He didn't try to hide
- 4 The government will formally declare its intentions tomorrow.
The government will issue its intentions tomorrow.
- 5 The job requires you to combine lots of different skills.
The job requires a lots of different skills.

3 e Read the blog post. Use the words given at the end of some of the lines to form a word that fits in the gap in the same line.

Hi-tech flavours

Our means of communicating with each other are definitely changing. Face-to-face ¹ are increasingly being replaced by technology. This was clearly evident in a restaurant I visited recently, where all the ordering was done on tablet computers. I was definitely impressed with the ² of the system. It gives you the ³ to order as soon as you are ready rather than waiting to catch the eye of a passing waiter. This leads to a significant ⁴ in the time it takes for your food to arrive. Staff are still on hand to provide ⁵ for people unfamiliar with modern technology. Luckily, the food was traditional, which was a ⁶ Eating in such a hi-tech environment is fine when you're on the move, but it will never be a full ⁷ for the restaurant experience. Part of the ⁸ of eating out is the sociable atmosphere and friendly help of the staff.

INTERACT

EFFICIENT
FREE

REDUCE ASSIST

RELIEVE

REPLACE
PLEASE