Hello! Here's some information about my friends.

This is Eric's bedroom. It's nice. He has a bed and a table with two chairs, but he doesn't have a bookcase. His books?

They're on the table, next to the TV. He has a nice board game. It's under the bed. He has a football, too. It's on the wardrobe, behind his robot. And his favourite electronic game is in the wardrobe.
