

simple past vs. present perfect

Match the adverbs to the corresponding tense.

just

already

never

twice

last summer

(not) ...yet

last week

two days ago

ever

before

in 2012

last Saturday

always

yesterday

Find the missing Verb form(s).

bring			win	took
	met
run					written
drink				sold
		slept		threw
do	did				seen
	was/were		eat
go			fall	fell
	broke			found
say		said		came

Last year's Lord Mayor's Day

Complete the text. Use simple past or present progressive verb forms.

Last year Lucy _____ (want) to see the new Lord Mayor. She _____ (talk) to Maya and her friend _____ (say): "Yes, let's go and watch the parade and the new Lord Mayor! _____ (ever, listen) to the speech of the new Lord Mayor?" Lucy _____ (answer): "No, _____ (never, do) that!" A little later the two girls _____ (dress up) in costumes and _____ (join) the crowds in the streets of Plymouth to see the parade. They _____ (see) a marching band, _____ (wave) their red and yellow flags and _____ (cheer) like everybody else. Suddenly, Mukesh and his friend David _____ (arrive). Mukesh _____ (shout): "Hey girls! _____ (already, be) to Dad's Indian food stall? We _____ (promise) to help him, but first we want to hear the town crier's tongue twisters." Lucy _____ (scream): "Wow, that sounds cool! David _____ (add): "_____ (you, ever, hear) about Sir Francis Drake? There are photo walls and you can take funny pictures as Sir Francis Drake there. Of course, you can also choose Queen Elizabeth I." Maya _____ (yell): "I _____ (never, take) such a picture! Would you like to go there, too?" Lucy _____ (reply): "Sure! And we must eat some curry at your Dad's food stall later!" Maya _____ (smile) and _____ (state): "Sounds like a plan!"