

READING EXERCISE
LUNCH WITH MY FRIENDS

Dodge and his friends, Walter and Cheems, had lunch together today. Walter had a six pack of sodas, but nothing to eat. Cheems only had a cheeseburger, but nothing to drink. But Dodge had a lot of things to eat and drink. Dodge had a milkshake and some fruit. He decided to share his lunch with his friends, so he gave his apple to Walter and his milkshake to Cheems. To thank him, Walter gave Dodge one of his sodas, and Cheems let Dodge eat a piece of his cheeseburger.

1. Choose the correct option and answer the questions with complete sentences.

..... friends does Dodge have?

..... sodas does Walter have?

..... sodas did Walter give to Dodge?

2. True or false.

Cheems had a cheeseburger and a soda. True/False

Walter didn't have anything to eat. True/False

Dodge has four friends. True/False

Dodge, Walter, and Cheems had lunch together. True/False

3. Answer the questions with complete sentences.

How many drinks did Dodge have?

Did Walter had something to eat?

What did Dodge give to Cheems?

4. Correct the sentences.

How much sodas does Dodge have?

How many candies did Cheems eats?

Walter have a lot of sodas.