

Match the two halves of the sentences.

1. If I fail an exam, ...
2. If a friend tells me a secret, ...
3. If I save enough money, ...
4. If you run very fast, ...
5. If you listen to good music, ...
6. If Sandra marries Peter, ...
7. If the weather is nice, ...
8. If Jameson wins the elections, ...
9. If he meets Sue at the disco, ...
10. If you ask mum, ...
11. If Sarah does some exercise, ...
12. If you are bad, ...
13. If Terry arrives late again, ...
14. If Jim goes to Paris, ...

- A. ... you'll get tired.
- B. ... he will change the laws.
- C. ... you feel like dancing.
- D. ... Santa won't bring you presents.
- E. ... I don't tell anybody.
- F. ... the kids will go on a picnic.
- G. ... he will dance with her.
- H. ... she'll feel much healthier.
- I. ... his boss will fire him.
- J. ... he'll buy a souvenir of the Eiffel Tower.
- K. ... my parents get angry.
- L. ... she'll make you a big cake.
- M. ... she'll be very happy.
- N. ... I'll buy a new house.

