 Beat a frantic pace
 And it's not even seven AM
 You're feeling the _____ of anguish settling

You cannot help showing them in Hurry up then
 Or you'll fall behind and
 They will take _____ of you
 And you need to heal the hurt behind your eyes
 Fickle words crowding your mind

So
 _____, sugar, let your _____ flood you
 Like waves of _____ fire, you're safe within
 _____, sweetie, let your floods come rushing in
 And carry you over to a new _____

_____ as you might
 You _____ to give it up
 Seems to be holding on fast
 It's hand in your hand
 A _____ over you
 A beggar for soul in your _____
 Still it don't matter if you won't listen
 If you won't let them _____ you
 You just need to heal
 Make good all your lies
 Move on and don't look behind

So
 _____, sugar, let your _____ flood you
 Like waves of _____ fire, you're safe within
 _____, sweetie, let your floods come rushing in
 And carry you over to a new _____

_____ after _____
 Fickle visions messing with your head
 Fickle, vicious
 _____ in your bed
 Messing with your head
 Fickle visions
 Fickle, vicious
