G: ok, kids. We're going to meet here at half past five. Don't get
D: No problem, Dad! It's ten past two now, so we've got more than three hours.
SH: We want to get some interesting information for our ezine, so where shall we go first?
A: Tower Bridge is the most famous bridge in London. Let's go there.
SH: How do we there?
A: Let's look at the map Now, we're the station. That' here.
D: We have to go along this road. We don't go the river. We left here
D: Ok, now we're a corner. DO we want to left or right, Alvin?
A: Er, I don't' know. I think we the third street on the right, then walk this park.
SH: Er, boysturn the map! We're going in the direction! SH: Excuse me. Can you tell us how to to Tower Bridge, please?
W: Look, dear. It's just the street. It's you.
