Present perfect: affirmative

We've finished our homework.

He's put the books on the shelves.

You've made a mess.

Use the present perfect for actions in the past that are still true now.I've tidied my room.

This means the room is tidy now.

Present perfect = have / has + past participle (pp)Regular past participles = printed, saved, logged offIrregular past participles = make – made, put – put

Affirmative

I/you/we/you/they
he/she/it

Short form

've finished
's finished

Negative

haven't finished hasn't finished

 We use the present perfect to talk about something that happened very recently.

I've sent you a message.We've finished our homework.

We also use the present perfect to talk about an action in the past that is still true now.

It's very clean in here. Yes, Amy's tidied up!

We normally use the short form, especially in conversation.

We form the present perfect with has or have + past participle.

In many cases, the past participle (finished) is the same as the past simple form. However, many verbs have irregular past participle forms, e.g. do → done, have → had.

There is a list at the back of this book on page 80.

4 Write.

Tom Can we play with our friends outside now?

Mum Have you finished everything?

Tom Yes, I <sup>1</sup> 've finished (finish) my homework and I <sup>2</sup> _____ (print) it.

Mum What about Sophie?

Tom She <sup>3</sup> _____ (save) hers on a memory stick.

Sophie And we <sup>4</sup> _____ (log off) and we <sup>5</sup> _____ (turn off) the printer.

Mum Very good. You can go outside and play now.
