DESCRIBING A HOUSE OR FLAT

3. Match the descriptions and photos

I live in a cottage in the country. It's old and made of stone, and the rooms have very low ceilings. There's an open fire in the living room and it's very cosy in the winter.

I live in a modern flat in the city centre. It's spacious and very light, with wooden floors and big windows.

4. Listen and check. Focus on how the highlighted phrases are pronounced.

chimney or fireplace?

In English chimney only refers to the structure on the roof of the house. Fireplace is the place where you burn wood or coal. For some nationalities chimney is a 'false friend'.

roof or ceiling?

Roof is the top part of a house. Ceiling is the top part of a room.

WHERE PEOPLE LIVE

5. Complete the preposition column with in or on. Then listen and check.
