3) Match the beginnings of the sentences to the correct endings.

IF- CLAUSE

(Condition – possible in the future)

MAIN CLAUSE

(Result)

If you ever find yourself stuck in the middle of the sea,

I'll sing a song beside you.

If you ever find yourself lost in the dark and you can't see,

every day I will remind you.

If you are tossing and you're turning and you just can't fall asleep,

I'll sail the world to find you.

If you ever forget how much you really mean to me,

I'll be the light to guide you.

We use the First Conditional to talk about situations that have a realistic chance of happening in the future.

4) Look at the tenses in each clause in exercise 3. How do we form the First conditional?

If + _____, _____ + base form verb.

When (meaning "every time") is an alternative to if.

Note:

"You'll always have my shoulder when you cry".

"And I know when I need it..., you'll be there".

Important: never use "will" in the if-clause or after when.
