Reading and speaking-page 17

b- Now read an article about a millionaire. How did he become so rich?

A- Selling clothes
B- Writing a book
C- Inheriting a fortune

Why is his success surprising?

A- He could read but not write
B- He couldn't read or write
C- He could write

How did he make his daughter proud of him?

A- He became a millionaire
B- He hired an excellent writer
C- He learnt to read and write

c- Now read the a article again and number the events in the order in which they happened.

A _____ He became a millionaire again.
B _____ He learnt to read and write
C _____ He lost all his money.
D _____ He sold old clothes in the market.
E _____ He opened a department store.
F _____ He won an important prize.
G _____ He opened a small clothes shop.
H _____ He became a millionaire.
I _____ He sold clothes in the market again.
J _____ He wrote his autobiography.
K _____ His shop was on the front page of a newspaper.

f Complete the questions with one of the highlighted words and phrases.

1. When was the last recession in your country? How long did it last (has it lasted)?
2. Do you know anybody who works as a _____? What does he (she) sell? Does he (she) enjoy his (her) job?
3. If you were completely _____ who would you ask to lend you some money?
4. Have you ever bought something the first day it _____ ? What?
5. Do you know anybody who has _____on their own? Is it successful?