

1 Drag the words to match them with the pictures.

an eye

a star

a tooth

1a Drag the words to match them with the questions.

When?

I don't know

Why?

We

Who?

Tonight

2 Read the lyrics and guess the right words.

Give a reason for your choice. Then listen to check.

2a Look at the words.

Which is a verb? Which is a noun?

- The sky is white red tonight
- We're on in the edge tonight
- No shooting star car to guide us / we
- Eye for an eye
- Why tear each other others apart
- Please tell say me why
- Why do us we make it so hard black
- Look at us we now
- We only got us ourselves to blame
- It's such a shame

I think we normally use.....with.....

It seems to me.....

With it seems to sound better

blame

shame

3. idiom:

an eye for an eye

Definition

the idea that a person who causes another person to suffer should suffer in an equal amount

example

I don't believe in that kind of eye for an eye justice.

3 Discuss. Look at the idiom and it's definition.

Answer the question.

- Where does this idiom come from?
- Complete the saying: «an eye for an eye, a for a»
- What do you think about the idea of the idiom?
- Who are the characters of the song?
- What happens between the characters?

Character
a person in a film, a book or a song.

