

Great Britain & Ireland

1. Write the name of each country's flag.

2. Match to make correct sentences.

Guy Fawke's night is celebrated in

Croke Park

Belfast is the Capital of Scotland

The largest sporting Stadium in Ireland is called..

Northern Ireland

Edinburgh is the capital of England

3. Write True or False.

- a. Ireland has two official languages; Irish and English.
- b. Road signs in Ireland are written in Irish.
- c. Glasgow is the capital of Wales.
- d. 'The Troubles' was a period of violence between the Irish Catholic community and the British Protestant community in Northern Ireland from 1969 – 1999 in which 3,500 people died.
- e. Football is the most popular sport in Wales.
- f. 'Shinty' is a game similar to hockey played with sticks in the Scottish Highlands.
- g. People in Northern Ireland can hold a British passport, an Irish passport, or both.
- h. Roman Catholic and Muslim are the two most popular religions in Scotland.
- i. Manchester is the capital of Scotland.
- j. Cardiff is the Capital of Wales.
- k. Ireland gained Independence from Great Britain in 1922 after a bloody revolution.
- l. The two main political parties in England are called The Labour Party and The Conservative Party.
- m. Big Ben is a famous landmark in Dublin.