

Do or Make

Fill in the blanks with the correct form of "do" or "make".

1. It's hard to make friends when you are abroad and you don't know the language.
2. All right, I'll make you a promise. If you make an effort this term at school, we will make an awesome trip to London this summer. Doesn't it make you happy?
3. Did you make sure you locked the front door before leaving?
4. You've made such a mess! I'll have to make my best to work it out!
5. I didn't make my homework yesterday so my teacher is really annoyed.
6. Believe me, you wouldn't make so many spelling mistakes if you read more!
7. My grandfather made a lot of money when he found oil at the backyard.
8. I felt scared when something or someone made a hideous noise in the middle of the night.
9. My English is improving! I've made great progress since I started watching V.O. movies.
10. Please, leave me alone. I have to make a phone call.
11. Yesterday I made the spring-cleaning and now my house is spotless and neat.
12. Let's make a deal, right? Do your chores and I'll make you your favourite pizza for dinner!
13. I'm afraid this is not going to be a snowy winter to make snowmen.
14. Do a revision of your essay, please. This paragraph doesn't make sense at all!
15. Uh, oh! You'll have to make a good excuse for being late. Mum is furious...
16. Everything is ready for tomorrow's party. My hairdresser is making my hair this afternoon and my friend Lucy has made me a fantastic dress.
17. The president made a really touching speech against terrorism on TV last night.
18. Paul made a very rude comment about her sister and he had to make the washing-up the whole week.
19. It make no difference to me if you leave or stay at home.

20. Ms. Martin has punished us for making faces at Alex during the lesson.
21. I used to make nice drawings at school. Drawing make me happy when I was younger.
22. I had just made a complaint at the reception desk when I realised everything had been my fault. How embarrassing!
23. You should make more questions when you have doubts. Otherwise, you'll make wrong in the exams.
24. - What's your nephew Tom doing, Sam?
- He's making an endless list for Father Christmas!
25. You look tired, dear. So do nothing. Just make yourself comfortable and I'll make you some hot chocolate.
26. I hope our governments will make a profitable agreement for everybody in the summit in Paris this weekend.
27. Bryan is making an interview for a new job this afternoon, so cross fingers!
28. Who's made a hole in my new sweater?
29. Sam is tired of his boring life and has decided to make a move.
30. I want to make it clear to you, so ask questions if you want.
31. I'll make an exception and I'll let you eat a second ice-cream.
32. Why do you make a fuss over a problem like that? It's ridiculous!
33. Do peace with your brother or you won't use your phone for the whole week!
34. My mother loves Saturdays. After doing yoga, she always make her nails. And then, she leaves home to make some shopping.
35. You have to make your own way. No matter if you make wrong or right.

